Foreign Aid Hike Plea By Ike Ignored

Congress Votes Compromise Bill For $3.7 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress brushed aside an unprecedented last-minute plea from President Eisenhower Friday and passed a compromise $3,722,350,000 foreign aid spending bill slashed more than 13 per cent below his original request.

The House passed the bill by voice vote after all but ignoring a special message from the President pleading for restoration of part of the cuts. The Senate added its okay a few hours later after a lively debate.

The Senate roll call vote was 57 to 24.

ISSUES WARNING

Eisenhower warned that the half-billion-dollar cut in his request would cripple the aid program and jeopardize national security. He also said it would "hamper greatly" his White House successor, no matter who he is.

The President urged that the bill be sent back to a House-Senate Conference Committee which approved it only Thursday night.

But Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson called on Eisenhower to send his spokesman before Congress to justify a supplemental appropriation if he wants more funds. He said the appropriations committee would oblige if the President made a case for himself.

Agreeing with Johnson that this would be the proper approach were Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, and Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga. Kennedy said he wanted to "sustain" the President in a defense matter, but Johnson's plan was correct.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., countered that there were defects in the bill which could not be corrected in a later supplemental measure.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, agreed with Eisenhower and Dirksen that some of the restrictive provisions in the measure would be "utterly disastrous."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., warned his Democratic colleague not to reject Eisenhower's request lightly. He said that if foreign policy is to be a campaign issue, "we Democrats ought

New Committee Post Awarded To Rep. John

Rep. Mike John Jr. of Monroe has been named to the Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, he learned yesterday. John was notified of the appointment by House Speaker Tom Jewell.

"I am most willing to serve the people of Louisiana in any capacity that I am appointed to," John said.

NEWLY FORMED

The committee was approved by the legislature after Rep. Algine Brown of Shreveport and Rep. George Tessier of New Orleans pushed a resolution through both chambers.

Brown and Tessier stressed the need of teaching Americanism throughout the past 60-day session of the legislature.

With 10 members, the committee will carry investigative powers, including authority to subpoena witnesses. In addition, the committee has authority to employ investigators.

John said he assumed a meeting would be called for the purpose of electing a chairman and vice-chairman and to draft a program for the committee to follow.

He was notified of his appointment by letter from Jewell.

Davis To Study Hearing Facts

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Gov. Jimmie H. Davis Friday declined to comment on the federal court hearing in New Orleans on public school integration.

Davis was asked for comment on the court's finding that he was served properly by U. S. deputy marshals with a summons to the injunction hearing and the walk-out by Louisiana Atty. Gen. Jack Gremlion.

"I will not comment until such time as I have had an opportunity to study the facts about today's happenings," Davis said.

Davis earlier dodged marshals seeking to serve him with papers in connection with the hearing. He maintained he was not served.

P-TA Meet

The executive committee of the Logtown Parent - Teacher Association met this week to lay plans to create more interest in P-TA work. Mrs. Douglas Moore, president of the organization, handed out work sheets to committee chairmen.

Present at the meeting were Miss Mare Filhoil, Mrs. Garland Shipp, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. Oma C. McGuffee, Mrs. Lewis Walters, Mrs. Lawrence Grant, Mrs. Joe Cascio, Mrs. A. O. Kitchens, Mrs. Cecil McDuffen and Mrs. U. N. Bradford.

Castro Seizes American Plant

HAVANA (UPI)—Cuba seized the $5.5 million U. S.-owned Swift & Co. meat packing plant without explanation Friday.

It was the third seizure of an American enterprise in Cuba in the past week and was assumed to be part of Premier Fidel Castro's announced intention of confiscating all U. S. businesses "down to the last nail in their shoes."

Air Force To Orbit Monkey In October

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, head of the Air Research and Development Command, said Friday the Air Force plans to launch a monkey into orbit in a Discoverer satellite in October.

He made official predictions that an American effort to put a living being in orbit would be made with the Discoverer XVI. Earlier plans to orbit life in the next two or three weeks were changed because the spider monkey, weighing four or five pounds, and the capsule which will carry it on a padded couch will not be ready in time.

Schriever also cast doubt on Russian claims that the space ship which returned a capsule full of animals to earth last Sunday was successfully recovered. The huge vehicle is probably "a mass of ruins" if it came back

Runoff Today For Ward 5 Board Post

Voting today will decide who will hold the third post on ward five's delegation to the Ouachita Parish School Board.

The polls open at 6 a.m., and will close at 8 p.m.

This is the second primary, made necessary when no one received a majority of the votes for the position in the July 23 primary.

BENNETT - RISER

Walter Bennett, incumbent board member, and Fred Riser will vie for the post.

Bennett, who owns and operates a West Monroe restaurant, is serving his first term on the board.

Riser, a former dairyman and now a realtor, has not held a public office.

Approximately 3500 persons voted in the July 23 election, although 3,000 ward five residents are registered voters.

The July election saw Riser receive 1312 votes. Bennett was next with 996. Others eliminated from a runoff were C. B. Griggs Jr., 889 and Rip D. Pipes, 366.

School board members include Charles G. Brennan, ward one; Warren E. Palmer, two; C. E. Buckley, Everett Zeagler and Fred S. McVay, three; Marvin Shipp, four; C. G. Wall Jr., Robert Rhone and Bennett, five; E. M. Finley, six; C. P. Holloway, seven; Harvey Wheelis, eight; M. H. Head, nine; J. H. Trousdale Jr., George M. Rorex and A. L. Smith, ten.

Brooks Readies Boundaries Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La.) said Friday he will introduce shortly a bill to establish the offshore boundaries of every state at 10 1/2 miles.

Present law fixed the boundaries at three miles, except for Florida and Texas, which the Supreme Court ruled has boundaries extending to 10 1/2 miles.

Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama also claimed that distance but the high court ruled that only Florida and Texas were entitled to have boundaries that far out. Control of the extra miles would give states rights to any oil or mineral wealth which might be found.

Brooks said his bill would equalize the offshore boundaries of all states, and also result in giving Louisiana the oil wealth already uncovered off its shores in the Gulf of Mexico.

OAS Envoys Cautious On Cuba Action

Herter Leading Bid For Strong Condemnation

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Western Hemisphere foreign ministers cautiously faced up Friday night to the drafting of a formal pronouncement of opposition and distaste for Cuba's involvement with the Soviet Union and Red China.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter led the forces for strong condemnation of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's bold venturing from hemispheric solidarity.

MAY YIELD

Herter apparently could swing a majority of the Latin-American nations for a strong stand but the United States may be called upon to yield somewhat to more moderate views if unanimous censure of Communist penetration is to be achieved in a resolution of the Organization of American States.

Diplomatic sources said the United States could expect support from perhaps 14 or 15 nations for a strong stand. But other foreign ministers of the 20 nations meeting here to discuss the problem are reported to favor a vaguely worded resolution condemning "extracontinental intervention" without naming anyone.

The United States seeks to emphasize the Communist threat to the Western Hemisphere as a result of Castro's recent swing toward Soviet-bloc countries. It wants a resolution that would avoid centering on U.S.-Cuban differences and would emphasize Cuban-nurtured communism as a peril to all the Americas.

Accordingly, it has introduced a resolution to the foreign ministers condemning efforts by the Soviet Union and Red China to spread their influence in the hemisphere and has called on Cuba to repudiate and reject such moves.

More Officers Are Suspended At Baton Rouge

BATON ROUGE (AP) — The police department Friday suspended three policemen as the investigation broadened into a burglary and theft ring.

Chief Shirley S. Arrighi announced the suspensions, which increased to eight the number suspended and charged.

Suspended "for an indefinite period pending further investigation of their cases" were:

Benjamin F. Brooks, 24, on the force about two years.

Louis W. Gourney, on the force three years.

John W. Fuqua, 24, on the force two and one-half years.

If any more offenses involving other police officers come to light, Arrighi said, they will be published.

Arrighi said charges against the men came out of questioning others already arrested in the investigation. He would not elaborate on their nature.

They will remain off the force, he said, "until certain charges made involving their names are either cleared up or proved."

Officer Terrell Bennett Jr., 29, Baker, was booked Thursday night for two counts of theft and released on $100 bond.

Cicero E. Hines, 26, posted $15,000 bond Thursday night after theft charges. Lawrence Langley, 37, was released on $100 bond after a theft count.

District Judge Fred S. LeBlanc set $40,000 bond on former policeman Gerald T. Harrell, 25, and $25,000 bond on policeman Gene J. Champeaux, 25.

FUNDS ELIMINATED

9-Foot Channel Project Killed

WASHINGTON (Special) — The project to dredge a 9-foot channel in the Ouachita River from the Red River to Camden, Ark., suffered a setback Friday when Senate - House conferees eliminated $150,000 that had been allotted to plan the operation.

The conferees also cut off funds to dredge an opening from Lake Providence to the Mississippi River and trimmed $10,000 from the $1,150,000 from the funds for the Bouet and Tensas Rivers.

ONLY CUTS

These were the only projects in Louisiana whose funds were cut or eliminated from the $4 billion public works appropriations bill approved early Friday. However, $300,000 was cut from the funds for Mississippi River levee work and $2 million from the amount allotted to channel maintenance in the same river.

The Ouachita River project was not requested in the budget submitted to Congress by President Eisenhower last January.

It was authorized in an omnibus public works bill passed in June, and the Senate added $150,000 for planning work.

The Lake Providence dredging funds were also added by the Senate after the house provided nothing.

Rep. Otto Passman, who helped get the authorization passed, said he tried to retain funds to start the project. He added, "I'm interested in economy, however, and I could not go too far."

Passman noted that he was successful in saving $558,680,000 from President Eisenhower's forecast.

Businessmen Ired About DeSiard Lag

By JIMMY HATTEN Staff Writer

There is considerable dissatisfaction here on the way the DeSiard Street construction work is being handled, although city government officials are not prone to discuss it publicly.

A survey conducted by the Monroe Morning World Friday reached 10 business places which, with the exception of two, report business is falling off. Six were openly critical of the way the work is progressing.

The survey came on the heels of the revelation that Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard and Commissioner of Streets W. D. H. (Bill) Rodriguez conferred on the street work.

It was learned that the two traveled to the site of street

Passman Says Channel Halted By Procedures

Congressman Otto E. Passman said Friday funds for a proposed Ouachita River 9-foot channel were not included in Congress' public works bill because the project was not in the budget.

Contacted in Washington, Passman told the Morning World by telephone that he received "every dime" he requested for flood control in the Lower Mississippi River Valley.

That amounted to $71-million.

PROCEDURAL

"I want my friends in the Fifth District to fully understand that the Ouachita River project was not included in the appropriation simply because of legislative procedures," Passman stated.

He explained that Congress, in handling public works measures, first authorizes a project, then comes back the next year and approves funds for it.

"And that is what happened in this case," he said.

Passman explained that this year Congress authorized the 9-foot channel for the Ouachita River — only several weeks ago — and would appropriate money for the project next year.

"Those who are familiar with the legislative processes of Congress understand that to appropriate money for the Ouachita project this year was impossible

Gremlion Shouts Ire, Stalks Out

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A three-judge federal court — called a den of iniquity by Louisiana's attorney general — took under advisement Friday two suits seeking to nullify the state's school segregation laws.

"You are violating my constitutional rights," shouted Atty. Gen. Jack P. F. Gremlion to the judges.

As he headed for the courtroom door, he added: "I am not going to stay in this den of iniquity."

STORMS OUT

Storming into the corridor, Gremlion told newsmen, "You can't tell what's going to come out of those fellows. They can do whatever they want, socially and psychologically, whatever that may be."

Then he said: "Negroes are running the country."

Before the court were two motions for temporary injunctions, one by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, and another by 31 white parents. They asked that Gov. Jimmie H. Davis be restrained from preventing the New Orleans School Board from complying with federally ordered integration.

U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright had ruled that Orleans Parish — county — public schools must integrate the first grade when schools open.

Under recent state legislation, Davis was given power to close all public schools of the state if any school is required to integrate.

Davis was not at the hearing. Testimony was offered that he dodged process servers. The court ruled he had been properly served through his office employees. But it was not mandatory for him — or for Gremlion, for that matter — to appear.

The judges, who heard arguments in both cases during a two-hour session, were Richard T. Rives, presiding judge of U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals; U.S. Dist. Judge Herbert W. Christenberry; and Wright. Rives is a native and resident of Montgomery, Ala., and Wright and Christenberry are natives and residents of New Orleans.

House Speeds Bill On Medical Care To Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Friday passed a compromise bill to provide government-financed medical care for people over 65 who can't afford to pay for it themselves. The Senate, which had been expected to approve it Friday night, began debate but postponed a showdown vote until Saturday.

The bill, which cleared the House on a 368-17 vote, fell short of the rival plans for broader medical coverage proposed by the two presidential candidates — Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

To cheers from Democrats and boos from Republicans, House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack, Mass., predicted that Kennedy would win the White House by campaigning for his plan of medical care under the social security program.

"This will be a political issue," McCormack said. "When Kennedy is our next president we will enact the social security program."

The restricted care plan may turn out to be the only one of four key pending bills to pass before Congress adjourns. There appear

CATTLEMEN - FARM BUREAU

Seek State-Wide Meat Inspection

Ouachita Parish Farm Bureau here, there's going to have to be enough parishes fall in line to Friday that the only way meat inspection will work is if it is on a state-wide basis.

Both the Farm Bureau and the Ouachita Parish Cattlemen's Association currently are working toward passage of a meat inspection law for this parish.

Earle forecast that if a meat inspection ordinance is passed here, next-door parishes without ordinances could send in their freshly slaughtered meat for sale here.

"If we get an ordinance passed here, there's going to have to be enough parishes fall in line to Friday that the only way meat inspection will work is if it is on a state-wide basis," he stressed.

"A statewide ordinance is the only way it ever will do any good or be a success. It would be no Association currently are working toward passage of a meat inspection law for this parish."

Such a local ordinance would satisfy the public, but they would not know if the meat they were eating was inspected or not," he pointed out.

Nearby parishes, such as Richland, Franklinton, Lincoln, Caldwell, Franklin, any that have slaughterhouses, could send in meat.

An inspection law for Ouachita alone would "only be taxing the slaughterhouses here," he said.

"The only fair way is to make inspection state-wide. It's the only way it will work. Even if we get five or six parishes together on passing ordinances, it will work better than with just one parish."

Lack of inspection means that although packing houses are inspected to make sure they are sanitary, the meat is not inspected, either before animals are slaughtered or afterwards.

Slaughterhouse inspection of animals and meat would find any diseased animals, and prevent meat from being sold as food here.

Meat brought in here from other states is federally inspected. Earle said the Farm Bureau has been working toward getting meat inspection for four months.

Bills seeking state-wide meat inspection have been placed before the legislature "two or three times, but they never got out of committee," the Farm Bureau official said.

In 1957, the Ouachita Farm Bureau had a meat inspection ordinance ready to present, but members could not get together with others connected with such a project and they dropped it.

This time, both the Cattlemen's Association and the Farm Bureau are working toward it.

Early next week, a joint committee from both groups will go to Shreveport to study how that city's meat inspection ordinance works. Three other cities and two parishes have meat inspection in Louisiana.

Passman, meantime, turned to the $71-million appropriation for flood control for the Lower Mississippi River and its tributaries.

He said, "The appropriations committee approved every dime that was included in the budget on this matter."

But, in addition to the Ouachita River project, funds for a proposed Lake Providence Harbor were turned down also.

Passman explained, "This is a case just like that of the 9-foot channel for the Ouachita River. The Lake Providence project simply was not included in the budget since it was just recently authorized by Congress."

Gremillion Shouts Ire, Stalks Out

schools here Sept. 7 "to avoid confusion."

Under the present status, schools, placed under the administration of Gov. Jimmie Davis, would open on a segregated basis. Davis Thursday night reiterated his determination to open the school session segregated.

"It is time our sovereign state takes a stand," Davis said in a state-wide television appearance.

Although Davis was not in court, the state was represented by Gremillion and assistants, who argued they had not been properly served, that their witnesses were not present, and that the cases ought to be continued.

When counsel for the white parents offered affidavits, Gremillion objected, and the court ruled the affidavits admissible.

It was then that Gremillion pounded the table and said, "I don't consider this justice. You are running roughshod over us."

Rives said they were "not running roughshod over anyone," that they were trying to avoid confusion.

"If confusion and chaos is being created it is in this court," Gremillion said. Rives told him he could enter his objections, but to be more respectful of the court.

Then Gremillion walked out with his declaration about "this den of iniquity."

Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the NAACP, called for an "on against school segregation, language."

This is no longer a "case of the rights of some Negro children," he told the judges.

"It is a case against the elected officials of Louisiana setting themselves up against the sovereignty of the U. S. Constitution," Marshall argued.

Marshall, who flew here from New York to assist in the case, accused Gov. Davis of trying to do the same thing Gov. Orval E. Faubus attempted in Arkansas.

Davis seized control of the New Orleans School Board "to deliberately frustrate the federal integration order," Marshall said.

He called for a strong injunction ruling against Davis and Atty. Gen. Gremillion so they "will realize they are not in a position to frustrate the powers of this court."

Charles E. Richards, representing 31 white parents of school children, called for a delay in integration for at least one year.

Failing that, Richards asked the tribunal to declare the state's entire package of school segregation laws unconstitutional.

The sole objective of the parents' suit for an injunction is to keep them open and segregated, the parents would have no complaint, he said, "but they don't believe it can be done that way."

"Sometimes you would think the case of Grant versus Lee hadn't been decided at Appomattox courthouse in 1965," Richards added.

No attorneys for the state made oral arguments. But Gerald A. Rault, school board attorney, warned the tribunal against the consequences of integration.

"If Judge Wright's order is carried out, chaos will reign in the city of New Orleans," he said.

New Orleans School Supt. James F. Redmond, in affidavits submitted to the court, said integration could not be carried out in the little time remaining.

Schools are scheduled to open Sept. 7.

Redmond said the integration order was "impractical" because of the "wide and varied distribution of persons of various races within Orleans."

Wright's order assigns first grade children to the school nearest their home.

"Almost every public elementary school could be involved," Redmond said.

Redmond and his staff predicted "a complete breakdown of administrative procedures" if integration occurs this fall.

"Teaching conditions would be almost impossible," the statements said, "and the teaching staff would be disrupted."

Adenauer Tries To Settle Row Over Weapons

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer conferred twice Friday with Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss to try to settle a row touched off by the German general staff's demands for atomic weapons.

The government planned to issue a formal statement on the quarrel that forced Strauss to cancel his vacation and rush to Bonn to meet with Adenauer and Gen. Adolf Heusinger, the inspector-general of the West German Armed Forces.

Strauss would say only that "The chancellor is in complete agreement," but he did not say what they had agreed on. Most observers had expected Adenauer to criticize Strauss and the generals.

Opposition Socialists were spearheading the storm with charges that the German generals were stepping out of line in demanding policy decisions.

The general staff argued in a pamphlet that military conscription and nuclear weapons are necessary for national defense.

The Socialists oppose both the draft of men into the army and possession of nuclear arms.

take the initiative in working out solutions by bringing together men of good will.

He drew light applause here when he said:

"I recognize that so far as this issue is concerned, it is not just a Southern issue." The GOP presidential nominee went on to say

"It will not be solved just on the basis of one section" but with "each section recognizing the problem in its own backyard and not in someone else's."

Nixon picked up the pledged support of James V. Carmichael Atlanta business leader and long-time prominent state Democratic figure. He promised in his introductory speech "I will work and vote for you" in November. Carmichael sought the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1946 against the late Eugene "Tadmage" winning the popular vote, but losing the nomination through the state's county unit system.

Nixon and his wife, Pat, were openly pleased at the big turnout in both Southern cities. At both places, he won his biggest applause when he said the biggest issue is "peace in the world without surrender." And, he told the big crowd here, "I believe (the Republicans) can best provide the leadership which will mean progress."

Nixon was making his second foray into the normally Democratic South in hopes of wooing more of it than ever into the GOP camp. He told both the Alabama and Georgia audiences that "It is time for Southern voters to start exercising their right to make a choice between the two candidates for the presidency" and stop voting straight party labels.

Watchful Eye Of Mayor Nets Speed Charge

It's just not safe to do something you're not supposed to. Especially with one of the city fathers watching.

Freddie L. Garrison, 23, was driving through Monroe Friday — on Louisville Avenue — in a big truck and trailer with Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard watching.

Mayor Howard contends that Garrison, who is from Gadsden Ala., was attempting to dodge from one lane to the other at a rate of speed not allowed within the law.

So Howard, who has a police radio in his car, called the police department to have something done about it.

"I told them I would testify if needed," Howard said.

Howard, who was listed as the arresting officer on the book at the police station, said he did not actually arrest the man, just made sure he was stopped.

Castro Pledges To Aid Plotters In Argentina

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro was reported by informed sources Friday to have pledged all-out aid to Peronists seeking to overthrow the Argentine government.

The sources said Castro made the pledge at a secret meeting in the Hotel Havana Riviera with Peronist leaders Geronimo Remolino, Angel Borlenghi and John Cooke as well as two unidentified Argentine Communist leaders.

Castro is said to have encouraged the Peronists to redouble their efforts to return to power in Argentina. He is reported to have advised them to form guerrilla groups in the Argentine hinterlands, pledging that Cuba would give them effective aid including technical advice.

Head Of College Reports Beating

UNION, Miss. (AP)—The Rev. J. H. Germany, 47, president of a controversial Negro ministerial college under construction here, charged 20 white men beat, kicked and clubbed him Friday, then threatened him with death if he told on them.

The white preacher and dairy farmer said he and four Negro companions were accosted while loading materials at a public school being demolished.

He said the leader, whom he would not name publicly, told companions: "All right, boys, who wants him first? Go ahead and help yourself." Germany said six of the 20 men took turns beating him with a club, hitting him with their fists and kicking him in the ribs and back.

He said one of the men told him, "This is a sample of what you'll get if the Meridian Star finds out about this. You'll never live to read it."

The Star is a daily newspaper which circulates in this area.

His physician said the extent of injuries were not determined, the Rev. Mr. Germany said.

The minister suffered bruises on his head and face, cuts on his face and marks on his ribs and back.

He said he knew several of the men who beat him and that they were White Citizens Council members.

"I don't know whether it would do any good to file any charges," he said. "We have tried to get police protection ever since the thing started, and no one has shown up yet."

Germany said one of his companions summoned a constable, whom he identified as Walter Reeves and that Reeves arrived while the beating was in progress. The mob told him to get out, Germany said, and Reeves hurried away.

He said one of the men asked during the beating, "What will

U.S. Formally Ends Relations With Dominican

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States Friday broke off diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic, the first time in 42 years that it has taken such action against a hemispheric neighbor.

The action was a follow-up to last week's decision by the Organization of American States (OAS) that all member countries should sever relations with the regime of Dictator Rafael Trujillo.

The aim is to force Dominican reform, or else lead to Trujillo's downfall. Relations can't be restored until two-thirds of the 21 OAS members vote that the Dominican regime has reformed.

The United States recalled about 40 members of its embassy in Ciudad Trujillo and requested that the Dominican mission here go home. U.S. Ambassador Vinton Chapin is already in Washington on consultations, leaving the embassy headed by Charge d'Affaires Henry Dearborn.

The State Department also said it is considering further economic sanctions against the Trujillo regime. President Eisenhower this week asked Congress to cancel an increase in the republic's sugar quota which was granted last month after Cuba's sugar imports were reduced.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., called the diplomatic break-off "unwarranted and uncalled for." He said it amounted to a "slap in the face to the only people in Latin America truly friendly to

Death Claims

Mrs. Snyder

Mrs. M. W. Snyder, 59, died unexpectedly at her home 111 Filhiol, West Monroe, late Friday.

She was a native of Nashville, Tenn., and had lived in West Monroe since 1936. She and her husband operated a furniture store in West Monroe. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral services were incomplete last night but will be under the direction of the Mulhearn Funeral Home.

Survivors include her husband and one son, Emory Welch of Shreveport and two grandchildren.

Voter Roll Books Reopen Monday

Voter registration books for ward five re-open at 8 a.m. Monday, in the registrar of voters' office at the Ouachita Parish courthouse.

This will be the second time the ward five books have been opened since early this summer. They were open only two days after the first primary.

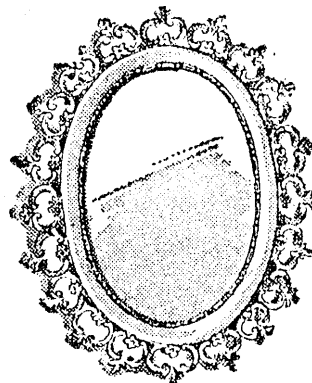

They had to remain closed for 30 days before the July 23 primary, and from then until after today's school board run-off election, Registrar Mrs. Mae Lucky noted.

Asks For Condemnation

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI)—Conservative legislator Luis Valdez Larrain has asked the Chilean government to condemn Cuba for the Communist propaganda he says was included with Cuban aid to Chilean earthquake victims.

Words Against Deeds

The post-convention session of Congress has already given the voting citizens an opportunity to observe how their representatives match deeds against words.

The platform committees of both parties had plenty to say about civil rights, a campaign favorite for the past three presidential elections.

In addition, the Democrats in their platform promised everything the welfare state had to offer. The Republicans must take credit for declaring themselves firmly against plunging the people into debt slavery.

During the current session, Vice President Nixon will preside over the Senate and will be unable to vote on issues except in case of a tie. His running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, has resigned as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and will be out of the public eye in any capacity other than his actual campaigning.

But both the Democratic front-runners are taking part in the voting in the upper house of Congress. One of the gravest threats—which has been brought up on many occasions before—is the demand of Sen. Joseph Clark, a Democrat from Pennsylvania, that Senate rules be changed to cripple freedom of debate in the Senate.

The senator from Pennsylvania wants to limit filibuster-type protests to a mere 15 hours. If this were done, the rights of a legislative minority would be sliced away. The sponsor's notion is that he is looking for another "hundred days" of legislative activity such as took place when President Franklin Roosevelt entered the White House in 1933.

The "hundred days" referred to recalled the period in our history where Madison Avenue-type advertising first was employed in national politics. Through newspapers and the new—at that time—medium of radio, terms as the NRA, the bank holiday, and the "hundred days" itself became household words. At the time, it appeared the new president was making and writing history in one operation.

In retrospect, most of the slogans of this era have faded and remain historical achievements only to those who want to turn the political clock all the way back to 1932.

Now, however, there is no "Republican" depression to combat. But the more "liberal" Democrats are supporting this "hundred days" notion to upset the few conservative practices still remaining at the federal government level. In particular, they would like to gut the Taft-Hartley Law, pack the Labor Relations Board with members partial to big labor and push federal programs on health, aid to education and housing.

The short session, therefore, is proving the real intentions of American politicians striving for a superstate. Behind the campaign trimmings, the real issue seems to be that of sound government versus slavery of the people to a mushrooming national debt.

A Clark style "hundred days" put into effect when the country is by no means in a state of emergency may push the nation into a totalitarian-type economy. And rash action by "liberals" during the present short session of Congress may prove a timely alarm to rally the conservatives to defeat such a prospect on election day.

Farm Boy Opportunities

Not so many years ago, nearly every candidate for a state or national office felt that he practically had to have a farm background to win approval. Now the situation is changed but there is still a big demand for those who were raised on the farm, particularly if they are college graduates. There is still something wholesome about having started life on a farm.

Those who deplore the fact that many farm-reared boys don't stay on the home place are mourning without a cause. Suppose none of the boys ever left the farms.

Commenting on this, the Farm Journal Magazine says:

"Have you ever visited one of Europe's countries where the land has been divided, generation after generation? In extreme cases you would see a 'farm' with little strips, an acre here, a half acre there, maybe widely separated.

"Under governments which discouraged new opportunities, where a peasant's sons were expected to become peasants, slicing up the property was the only solution."

About as far back as we can remember we have heard complaints about young people leaving the land and the same complaints are still heard. We may regret to see an outstanding youth leave, but what would happen if he couldn't?

Instead of bemoaning, should not we be glad to live in a country where a youngster is free to choose his future and to make the most of his abilities?

Not every bright boy will make a good farmer, nor wants to be one. He may do better for himself and for the country as a good professional or businessman.

Some who might like to stay on the farm do not do so for want of capital, as farming now is big business. Even though these also leave, we seldom see good farms that fail to find good farmers.

The boy who does not stay on the farm can capitalize on his farm background. Industry is looking for him, especially if he did well in college.

The demand for trained agricultural engineers rises every year. Even now the supply is short. Farm Journal says only about 250 agricultural engineers will get degrees in 1962, compared with 420 in 1949.

For farm boys who graduate in industrial and agricultural subjects, the demand is strong.

Burning Out Dross

"All truth has to go through a period of suppression and persecution to burn out the dross—to get people thinking.

"More and more the time of the American businessman is being taken to win an opportunity to keep his business going and to expand in the face of growing restrictions by the government and increasing tax burdens.

"If you are not an idealist, you don't teach free enterprise economy very long. There is considerable unpopularity involved.

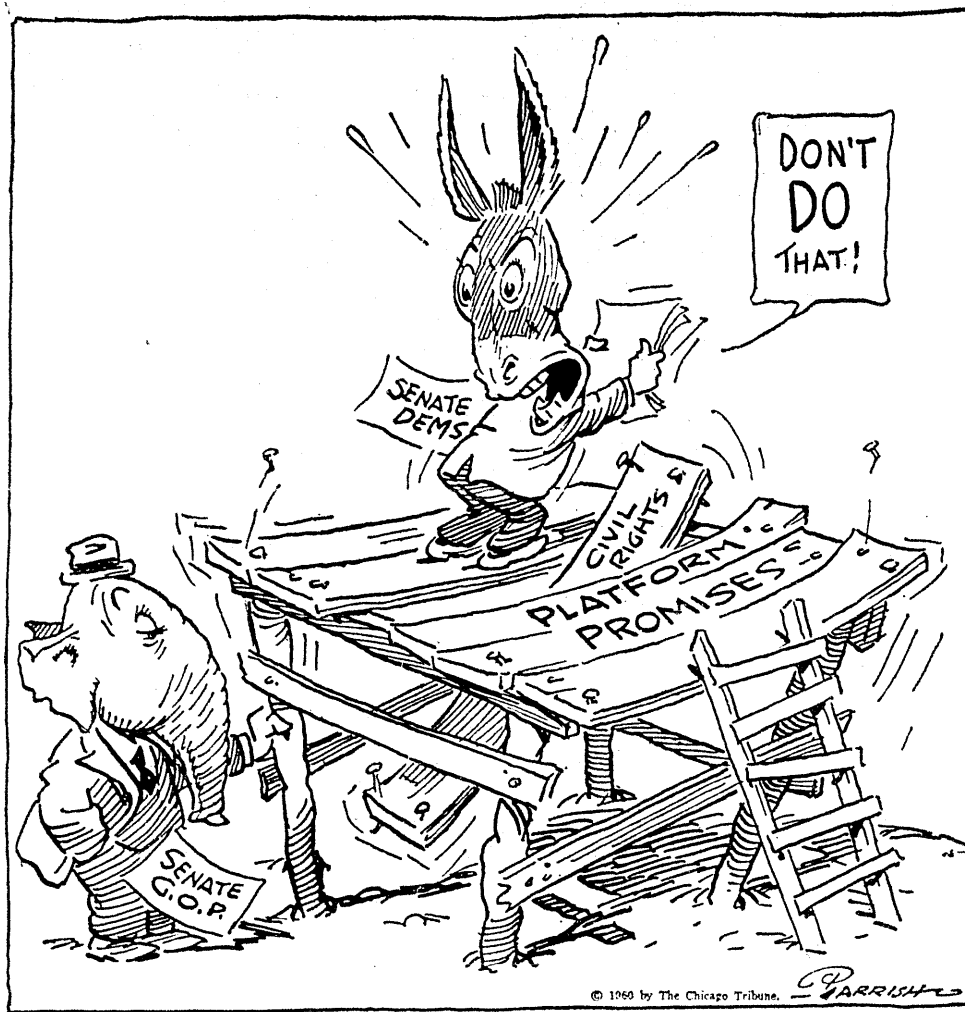

"Free enterprise, good standard economics has become almost an underground movement in the college today. The writings have been suppressed, many of the men have been fired from teaching free enterprise economics, so they have become a minority group.

"I am hopeful there is a change in the trend of the thinking of the young people not very far ahead, a return to the revolutionary ideas of our founding fathers."

These are statements by Dr. V. Orval Watts, professor of economics at Antioch college, in an address at Portland Ore., at a school for anti-Communists.

More teachers like Dr. Watts are needed to build respect for and belief in the superiority of private property rights, personal liberty and individual opportunity, instead of more advocates of political control of the individual from the cradle to the grave. Voters, particularly business and professional people, should pay more attention to the type of school officials, teachers and curricula found in our colleges.

Candidates Mending Fences

Respectable Elements In Democratic Party Prefer Truman To Stevenson, Mrs. Roosevelt Or Kennedy

Another week has passed during which both candidates are mending fences. The campaign, which was to have started now (emphasized and underlined), has not started at all. The course is running the same as usual. Both candidates are organizing for victory; both are catering to their natural opponents. Both are waiting for Labor Day to pass.

John Kennedy has made his peace with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and with Harry Truman. The peace with Mrs. Roosevelt is important because it could affect what once was 400,000 votes of the Liberal (Socialist) party in New York which follows Mrs. Roosevelt politically. In 1958, it polled 283,926 votes. This party, which consists of the so-called Jewish labor unions, has already endorsed John Kennedy. When the unions are referred to as Jewish, what is meant is that the leaders, David Dubinsky, Alex Rose and Jacob Potofsky, are Jews, but the members today are mostly Italians, Negroes and Puerto Ricans. The leaders walk a tight-rope and Mrs. Roosevelt, who is not only a campy politician but ruthless, knows her power.

The peace with Harry Truman is of a different nature. What might be called the respectable elements in the Democratic party admire Harry Truman. They prefer his leadership to that of Adlai Stevenson, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt or for that matter, John Kennedy. They dislike the A.D.A. Most such Democrats wanted Lyndon Johnson or Stuart Symington to be nominated. They resent the methods by which John Kennedy sought and received the nomination. They were outraged by the rudeness of Mrs. Roosevelt and Adlai Stevenson at the convention. It is an element that could vote Republican or not vote at all.

Therefore peace with Truman was important. Harry Truman is strictly a party man. He could not more vote Republican than he could join the Moslem faith. It does not take much for him to be regular. On the other hand, can he deliver the Democrats who do not want Kennedy?

Mrs. Roosevelt's influence in New York City is very important. Her following is large and fanatical. Her lukewarmness caused many New York so-called Liberals to say that they would vote for Norman Thomas this year. As Norman Thomas is not a candidate, this means that it is their intention not to vote at all. Eleanor Roosevelt's attitude may change their viewpoint.

A whispering campaign is being paid for in large cities with Jewish populations that Richard Nixon is an anti-Semite. Those who spread this story are liars. No Quaker is an anti-Semite. Furthermore, Nixon's entire career is evidence of his breadth of view on questions of race and religion.

This story goes back to the days when Nixon was a member of Congress, fighting the Communists. When he discovered the "pumpkin papers" and had Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers confront each other, the Communists attempted to smear the young representative from California. They could find no record because, except that he went to college and had been in the Navy, Nixon had no record up to then that was particularly notable.

When he ran against Helen Gahagan Douglas for United States senator and trounced her, he brought down on his head the maledictions of the Liberals. Helen Gahagan Douglas was one of their queens and she was believed to be a sure-in when Nixon destroyed her political career. She has disappeared politically.

Thus, he had against him the combined strength of the Communists and the Liberals who have never forgiven him. When he ran for vice president, they joined to smear him. He faced their charges forthrightly and won the respect of most Americans. It was the Communist-Liberal attack on Nixon in the 1952 campaign that made him an unusual figure in American politics.

Now these same forces are at work, particularly in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles. Their lies are not so easily handled, because they deal not with facts but with emotions. It is like similar charges against John Kennedy because his father was a friend of the charming Lady Astor. Those who spread tales that Richard Nixon or, for that matter, John Kennedy, is an anti-Semite are not friends of Jews. They are liars. Some are bigots. Some are the sort of people who like to shout "Fire!" in a crowded movie house. They are hateful creatures.

Daily Devotion

A man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife. — Ephesians 5:31.

The church has always been considered the bride of Christ in New Testament interpretation. As such, church members must have no higher loyalty. For example, one must not sin against the church — and avoidable absence at church services is such a sin — for this breaks the vows taken when one joined. While this verse is often cited as governing marital fidelity — and this is not to be belittled — the writer in this case, had in mind the relationship between Christ and His church.

Merciful God, help us to be faithful to our vows to Christ and to Thy church all our lives. In Christ's holy name we pray. Amen.

But something would always interfere. A telephone call or an important appointment. Repeat this performance day after day and you can see why the lower bowel becomes tired of it all. Why give you signals when you never answer.

This is the beginning of constipation. And the start of a long series of laxatives and enemas to overcome it.

The remedy is evident. If you are always rushed in the morning, get up a half-hour earlier so that the habit is never broken. This applies to the school child, the mother and the father.

The child often has his breakfast on the run because he is late. There is not even any thought of reserving time for a proper bowel movement. Result: constipation.

The mother is burdened with getting breakfast for her husband, preparing the children for school and cleaning up after breakfast. Then come the telephone calls and rings of the front and back-door bells that prevent proper elimination.

The day passes without bowel movement. Day after day this also adds up to constipation. Father is always in a rush: result — constipation.

Nixon Advisers

His Braintrusters More Experienced Than Kennedy Eggheads

A crucial point about the economists in Vice President Nixon's braintrust is that those considered to be most influential have been on top duty in Washington from time to time in recent years, and thus their philosophies and judgments have been reflected in attitudes and actions of the Eisenhower Administration.

To an informed reader these economists are not unknown quantities, as are so many of the eggheads around Senator Kennedy. It is not necessary to turn to their books or lectures to discern how they might try to mold U.S. policy if they had the chance to do so in coming years. As an illustration, two men to whom Nixon often turns are:

Dr. Raymond J. Saulnier, currently chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and a former close associate in the National Bureau of Economic Research of Dr. Arthur F. Burns, the man he succeeded in the CEA post. Saulnier has been the architect of Eisenhower's economic reports in the past few years. His views on the control of inflation, how fast our nation should grow, tax reform, balancing the budget, etc., etc., are on the record. Wilson Allen Wallis, dean of the University of Chicago's Graduate School of Business and executive Vice chairman of the "Cabinet Committee on Price Stability for Economic Growth." Nixon is chairman of that committee and its reports — prepared by Wallis — reflect Nixon's deepest convictions on the pocketbook issues so important to all of us. Of Wallis a colleague has remarked, "He is competent . . . Capable of a vast quantity of high-grade, well-organized work. He sits at his desk and grinds it out." These are qualities Nixon openly admires.

What sort of economic views have these men been offering Nixon? In broadest strokes, the following suggests the pattern.

On the central issue of economic growth, while the Democratic party platform specifies as a goal a 5 per cent annual rate of growth in our nation, the GOP platform deliberately omits any figure. Wallis has put it in plain words. "Talking about rate of growth whose meaning is not clear (is) a futile 'numbers game' . . . It would be unwise to attach great importance to attaining any particular figure for the rate of growth, not only because the figures are too inexact, but also because growth is too complex and too poorly understood a process for precise planning or projection."

On tax reform. A number one aim is reform of our tax laws to stimulate investment and spending by private business and thereby to "promote economic growth." These economists strongly believe tax reform, not much higher and broader government spending, will be the best way to keep our country in a sound, sustained expansion.

On inflation control. All their statements indicate they would continue to rely on traditional techniques to control future inflations — a balanced budget, credit controls, rising interest rates. When he was testifying recently on a bill that would direct the President to hold public hearing on certain price and wage increases, Saulnier called the idea "mischievous" and reasoned, "What if the President finds the wage and price increases unjustified? The next step would be sanctions to roll back the wage and price increases. I think this would inevitably develop into wage and price controls."

On the Federal Reserve System's independence. There would be no thought of tampering one bit with our Central Bank's independence in the hope of improving the quality of our controls over the boom-bust cycle. These men are "economic conservatives" — as the phrase is commonly understood and contrasted with the phrase "economic liberals."

In Eisenhower's recent years, they have helped mold our government's fundamental bread-and-butter policies and Nixon is leaning on their knowledge and judgments now.

Tomorrow: The Nixon brain-trust's businessmen.

U.S. Is Wicked

American Travelers Abroad Wonder

If Retribution Certain

CHEMIN DE FER EN FRANCE — What disturbs the traveler in alien lands is not a dread that foreigners will rise up to smite America the Beautiful — but that the Lord God in His vengeance will.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder, but also more fearful that the sins of the left — behind country will find it out. Somewhere along the way, I had a meal with a lonely Army Colonel who had served 19 of his 25 years abroad.

"I will match any of your super-patriots," he said, "in love of my native land. There's no place where the heart beats harder for home than on some distant post or station."

How truly spoken! And it could be added, as the traveling Wordsworth wrote:

"What wayward thoughts will fly into a lover's head!"

Oh, mercy! one thinks. What if it's too late for the USA to assert its best and noblest nature! What if we're due to get our deserts!

We are surely the wickedest nation on earth. The annual uniform crime reports of the FBI testify to that. We must be the one nation which makes the most depraved use of its leisure. The television programs sponsored by the great American private enterprise system bear witness to this. And to his enduring credit as a journalist of integrity, columnist John Crosby, who makes his living as a TV critic, lays it on the line. "We teach juvenile delinquency on television—sponsored," he writes.

The worst of it is that we know better, and this puts the unpardonable sin of hypocrisy upon our heads. Since my own field of criticism is politics, I perceive the hypocrisy in public life, and am compelled to revile it — but I take no pleasure in it. The four men running for national office have treated me with open friendship. I have been the guest of two of them, another has written an introduction for a book of mine, the fourth has given me tete-a-tete interviews for many years, upon request. But I am bound to say that three out of the four are arrogantly insincere in their professions of liberalism. If God looks into their hearts, as I'm sure He does, He will find a mare's nest of quackery and humbug on the uppermost domestic subject of 1960 — the subject called Civil Rights.

This is why, I have been brooding in these travels, the Lord is more likely to chastise us with the race problem than with nuclear bombs. The hypocrisy in race matters is now being laid bare and shameless by the shining truth of current history. Despite the desegregation planks in both party platforms, the nation is spending $100 million, as a first payment, to support the UN's non-white expeditionary force to the Congo. The few Irish and Swedish units are there as tokens, but the main body of troops is intentionally black-and-tan.

This is sensible. It recognizes facts of race which we insist upon denying in our national politics. Lumumba has virtually said, "Pale face — stay away!" Mr. Eisenhower, who used to speak very frankly on military race-mixing, is saying the same thing. He knows better than to send our boys, even in integrated units, to the homeland of the Negro. The UN action is one of the most segregated mass movements of people in history. It is a manifest proof that the races, while able to live in harmony and even affection if left to themselves, will froth and fume and become explosive if forcibly mixed.

Force is the catalyst. Voluntary acceptance in adult communities is the opposite of force, and is generally a fine thing. Amid reports from the Congo, the New York papers in Paris brought a report that Jackie Robinson, the superb Negro ballplayer of the 1940's and early 50's, might be selected to manage the San Francisco Giants.

Well, I hope it happens. Major League baseball is a community which has clearly accepted multi-racial performers. Branch Rickey had some trouble introducing Robinson to the postwar Dodgers, but nobody sent the 101st Airborne Division to enforce the experiment. Robinson was heroic on the field, and ambassadorial in his personal relations. Since then, Negro players by the dozens have proved themselves better in baseball as a race than Caucasians.

Who would deny it? Who would begrudge it? But since they are better in baseball, they are also different — and racial difference is what is inadmissible in public affairs these days. The danger is that our public men, seeking the bloc-votes of minorities, will lead us all into falsehood — not merely in these matters but many others.

Surely, the races can share the earth, and its blessings, but it takes real wisdom among leaders to bring it off. Three out of the four national candidates don't have it, and don't want it, because wisdom in this field is long — and election day comes in November.

From crime, from depravity, from unwisdom, and especially from political hypocrisy, the Lord deliver us!

IN VFW TALK

Kennedy Favors Defense Buildup

DETROIT (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy, calling for a massive defense buildup, accused Richard M. Nixon Friday of trying to lull the voters into a sense of "complacency" with claims of U.S. superiority in all fields.

The Democratic presidential nominee told the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention he would like to join his White House rival in "rosy reassurances" that the United States is ahead of Russia in the military, economic, scientific and educational areas.

Speaking from the same platform where Nixon made the claims two days ago, Kennedy said he could not in all honesty join in such statements. Never before, he said, has the country been treated with "such open arrogance" by its enemies and been regarded with such "doubts" by its friends.

Kennedy declared that the balance of world power has been shifting to the Soviet-Red Chinese bloc. And, pointing to Cuba, he said that for the first time enemy

Set Meeting With Officers On Center

Quachita Parish Police Jury members plan to meet with local officials and judges soon, as the next step in obtaining a rehabilitation center to house some parish prisoners.

Jury President M. W. Montgomery and ward three juror Rankin Earle said Friday that the committee has agreed to follow the plans for the center, drawn up by the citizens committee in 1959.

W. O. Roberts, who heads the rehabilitation center committee, is due to talk with district judges soon, to determine whether prisoners may work if they are sent to the center.

Committeemen also are working with Sheriff Bailey Grant, and hope to obtain land for the center from the city of Monroe. The proposed site would be on or near the city's Selman Field property.

Last year, the citizens committee, headed by Walter Kellogg, was appointed by the parish to study the overcrowded conditions at the parish jail and try to work out some solution for relieving it.

NORTH MONROE Lions Club will stage its annual light bulb sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. One of the projects that benefit from the proceeds derived is the sponsorship of a Sea Scout troupe.

Sea Scout Dick Kurtz was on hand when Lion members sacked the bulbs for the drive. Lion Club members shown are George Stamper, center, and Lester Carr.

Boardman Quits GOP Committee

Clark C. Boardman of Monroe, who was the unsuccessful Republican candidate for lieutenant governor in the April general election, announced yesterday that he has resigned as a member of the GOP state central committee.

Boardman said he was "too busy" to continue his activities on the ruling body of the party in the state.

Mrs. George Snellings has been named to replace Boardman and she will serve along with John Bluck.

Pool Schedule For Remainder Of Year Set

Commissioner of Finance H. W. McSherry announced yesterday that the Swayze Natatorium will operate on a new schedule during its last week of the season.

The pool closes for the season on Labor Day.

As usual, the pool will be closed next Monday, but on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday it will open at 1 p.m. until 8 p.m.

McSherry said the pool would be open during the mornings of those days since school starts Monday.

Starting next Friday through the last day on Monday, the pool will operate on its usual schedule, opening at 7 a.m. and closing at 9 p.m.

McSherry described this year as a "successful one" for the pool, pointing out that over 60,000 swimmers had taken a plunge.

That's one of the largest years ever, he said.

Purvis Cleared

A blood test submitted in city court here aided in clearing Leo J. Purvis, 121 Raymond Drive of a charge lodged against him by authorities of driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

Purvis was fined $30 on a charge of operating a vehicle with an expired drivers license.

Green Oaks Having Big Month; Full

The Quachita Parish detention home is having its "biggest" month so far this summer, according to juvenile officer Buster Crowley.

He told members of the detention home committee that the Green Oaks home has been filled to capacity several days in August.

It takes 20 youngsters to bring the count up to capacity.

L. B. Pettit, committee member, revealed that Home Supt. Norris Smith had said the home had more children during the first nine days of August than during the entire month of July.

Youngsters are taken to the home pending disposition of charges in juvenile court. Runaways also are lodged at the home until arrangements are made to return them to their families.

The committee held a brief meeting Friday afternoon, in the police jury office of the courthouse, as one of the four sessions required per year. Quachita Police Jury President M. W. Montgomery, West Monroe Judge Jasper Jones, jurors Rankin Earle and Pettit, District Attorney Albin P. Lassiter and Crowley attended.

Members decided to approach some local civic clubs, to see if they would be interested in landscaping the lawn next to the home's driveway.

Montgomery officially noted that the parish had obtained the furniture at the home for $1000 from the Louisiana department of welfare, which furnished the home and operated it for one year.

He said that the state paid $9000 for the furniture in 1957.

Members noted that the home's operating fund stands at $17,515.35 for the rest of the year. Thus far, $8,976.97 has been spent this year, from the $25,000 budget.

The next meeting will be held in November.

Rock'n Roll Records Made By Student

A Northeast State College student is currently making a dent in the tough field of recording.

He's Rocky Robin, a 21-year-old pharmacy student from Lafayette.

Robin, who plays guitar and sings too, came close to the top of the local hit parade with his first recorded number, a rock and roll piece entitled "Lonely Man."

His initial recording was rated third locally several days ago and is now in the top spot in Baton Rouge where he is scheduled for a performance on a rock and roll show within a few days.

Robin, however, does not have all the talent in the family. He is married to the former Bobbie June Moore, a baton twirling champion.

They are the parents of a baby daughter and reside at 301 Howard Street.

Soviet Union Orders U.S. Official Out

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union expelled U. S. Embassy First Secretary George Payne Winters Jr., 40, Friday on grounds he and "other" embassy officials were linked with a U. S. security officer ousted last year on spy charges.

Winters, head of the embassy's economic section, was expelled 11 days after Col. Edwin Kirtan, U. S. Air attaché in Moscow was ordered out because of alleged spy activities. The Soviet said Winters' activities were "incompatible with his diplomatic status."

The expulsion came as no surprise to diplomatic circles in Moscow because of the recent series of ousters of U. S. officials and American tourists in line with Moscow's stepped up vigilance campaign against foreign spies—a campaign apparently touched off when U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was captured last May 1.

In recent weeks the United States has retaliated by expelling Soviet First Secretary Valentin Yezhov on grounds he had bought aerial photographs of strategic target areas.

Winters, a bachelor, lists his home address as (615 Logan St.) Denver, Colo. He attended Colorado College, Princeton, Columbia and Georgetown Universities, served in the U. S. Navy and was on the embassy staff here until 1947 when he resigned to take a job as consultant with the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission (AEC). He later rejoined the foreign service.

His mother, Mrs. George Payne Winters Sr., 30, said in Denver her son was employed by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) instead of the Atomic Energy Commission.

able as it now stands.

He said that he favors zoning, but that some changes have to be made in the ordinance so that it will be acceptable to the public.

Howard and McSherry also say they are in favor of zoning.

Rodriguez said Friday that he has received a copy of the San Diego, Calif., city ordinance on planning and zoning regulations. He plans to study it, and hopes to get some good ideas from it.

Council, Chamber Meet To Talk Over Zoning Law

Monroe's mayor and two commissioners went before the Chamber of Commerce Friday to discuss the proposed zoning ordinance, but the two-hour session was closed to the public.

Street Commissioner W. D. H. Rodriguez said if news representatives attended the meeting, they would prevent free discussion.

"They (news representatives) would inhibit us. You can't have free discussion with the press there," said the public official.

Councilman W. L. (Jack) Howard, Monroe mayor, Finance and Utilities Commissioner H. W. McSherry and Rodriguez have met behind closed doors several nights this week, to study the proposed ordinance and see what changes need to be made.

When asked after the meeting if the chamber backed the council or approved any changes which the council might have recommended, chamber manager Jim Williams said, "No comment, this was an executive session."

Rodriguez appeared before the planning commission on August 15, and said that the proposed zoning ordinance was unacceptable.

Withdraw Warrant

A theft charge sworn to in a warrant issued against Frank Britton, 1402 Myres St., has been withdrawn. The complainant dropped the charges, according to the Monroe police department.

FOR WOMEN

Air Base Colonel Bans Scanty Attire

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — The Briley put the men under or commander at the U. S. Air Base at Kadema has issued night those entering the Officers' an order banning exceedingly re- Club must wear a jacket and tie, vealing or suggestive clothing for. The official summer military uni- American women around the form here includes bermuda base. Immediate reaction was shorts for men.

Briley took a similar slap at Col. Joe C. Briley in issuing his slacks when he commanded the base, effective next Thursday. Johnson base in Japan before reminded the women there are 26,000 unaccompanied servicemen on the big U. S. base on this island who have "little or no opportunity to meet and associate with American girls."

Criticism has been that some of our ladies unfortunately wear extremely short shorts and other items of scanty attire and of materials that leave little to the imagination," Briley said.

His order forbids shorts, slacks and pedal pushers for women in all public buildings at Kadema unless the garments are covered by skirts. Civilian women employees and military dependents are included.

The decree was posted in prominent places around the base. The National Labor Relations Board Friday pronounced the Kohler Co. that the rule is an imposition, guilty of prolonging by unfair labor practices a six-year-old strike.

Some of the females — they didn't give their names — admitted some of the scanty clothing looks indecent because it's worn since 1954. But they denied it looks sexy or that it might invite masculine assaults.

The W.A.s are indifferent. They aren't allowed to wear shorts or slacks anyway.

Board Rules Firm Unfair In Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board Friday pronounced the Kohler Co. that the rule is an imposition, guilty of prolonging by unfair labor practices a six-year-old strike.

The Wisconsin firm was ordered to require up to 1,700 strikers fired in an effort to win jobs back for some 77 strikers denied reinstatement by the NLRB.

The company announced an appeal, and indicated there would be no change in the status quo until a final court decision is reached.

Walter Reuther, United Auto Workers president, called on Kohler to resume bargaining to settle the protracted dispute. But he said, as long as the company wanted to prolong it by a court appeal, the union has appealed here Friday to the courts too in an effort to win jobs back for some 77 strikers denied reinstatement by the NLRB.

The UAW claimed victory against the medieval attitude of the Kohler management toward its employees, adding, "One of the few remaining holdouts for 17th century industrial relations has been brought to book."

The board decision held against the union in some respects. It ruled the union guilty of engaging in illegal "bribe-back" mass picketing with resultant violence after the walkout began on April 3, 1954.

The ruling said Kohler was justified in firing some 77 other workers for directing or participating in this type of unlawful union activity.

The case has become celebrated as one of the longest and most hotly contested in NLRB history. The issues, not tangled in politics after the investigating committee held hearings into its violent aspects.

Remand Negro

For Sentence In Battery Case

A Negro man, 34-year-old R. C. Williams, West Monroe, was remanded for sentencing in West Monroe City Court Friday after being convicted of a charge of simple battery and using loud, profane and offensive language.

In other action, Eddie Lee Murphy, 42, Negro, was given a 10-day jail term on a charge of simple assault. His address was listed as 132 Copely St., West Monroe.

Howard L. Hobson, 22, 1110 Arkansas Rd., was fined $25 or 25 days on a charge of reckless driving and causing a wreck.

J. C. Lewis, 42, 305 North 3th St., West Monroe, was fined $305.50 or 90 days on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

He was fined an additional $105.50 or 30 days on a charge of operating a vehicle with no operator's permit.

Mrs. J. W. Nelms, 1506 McGuire St., Monroe, was fined $35 on a charge of being intoxicated in public.

Thomas C. Pappas, 19, 2212 Jan St., West Monroe, was fined $45.50 on a charge of speeding 70 miles per hour in a 25 mile per hour zone.

Man Is Killed At Baton Rouge

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A station wagon struck the rear of a truck parked on the shoulder of Hammond Highway east of the traffic circle here Friday, killing David Green, 36, of Tangipahoa.

State police identified the driver of the truck as Albert P. Lemoine, 25, New Iberia.

Aggravated Battery Charges Lodged

James Jones, 36, Negro, F23B Foster Homes, was charged with aggravated battery by Monroe police Friday.

Jesse Thompson, 12 Broad Alley, told police that Jones hit him with a tire tool.

Warrant Sworn

A warrant charging simple battery was sworn out by Junior Miller, Negro, 15 Johnson's Alley, against Robert Russell, Negro, 31, of Rt. 1, Box 48A, charged with holding up the Seven Eleven Store on Orange Street here.

Pretrial Meet Slated Here In District Court

Pre-trial conferences for federal cases begin here next week. Judge Ben C. Dawkins Jr. will arrive in Monroe Tuesday, to conduct conferences August 30 and 31.

Purpose of the conferences is to try to settle lawsuits without time-consuming trials.

As it now stands, civil lawsuits are scheduled in U. S. District Court, Western District of Louisiana, at the Monroe Post Office building, through most of September.

Escapee Faces Extradition

Dan Robertson, who slipped out of the Ouachita Parish jail in a trash can, is due to face extradition hearings at Sacramento, Calif., Sept. 26.

The Ouachita Parish sheriff's department is trying to get Robertson back to face charges of armed robbery and jail break.

He was picked up in California by the FBI. Robertson, 29, is charged with holding up the Seven Eleven Store on Orange Street here.

Attorney Dies During Trial

KENTLAND, Ind. (AP) — Defense attorney Robert Salek, 41, La Porte, dropped dead of a heart attack Friday during his closing arguments to the jury in the Tommy Morgan vice bribery trial.

It was not immediately decided whether the trial would proceed, or if they would have to start over.

Peace Warrant Sworn On Negro

A warrant sworn out against Thomas Benton Cruise, 300 Smith St., on a charge of disturbing the peace with a gun, was reported by Monroe police Friday.

Police said the warrant was sworn out by Jack Johnson Jr., 517 Sherrouse.

FBI Quizzes Suspects In Kidnap Case

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UPI) — FBI agents questioned a string of possible suspects Friday in their search for a blonde girl and her lovers' lane kidnaper.

Informed sources said one of the suspects was an ex-convict whose movements were unaccounted for during the after-midnight hours Thursday when Mary Lily Roberts, 17, was taken at gunpoint from her fiancé's car.

The tall, blond gunman came upon Miss Roberts and her escort, John Bryant, 20, as they sat in a wild life refuge lovers' lane. The kidnaper ordered Bryant from the car and shot him in the face. Then he ordered the girl into his own car and made a clean getaway.

More than 150 volunteers searched the rugged Illinois Ozark country Friday by foot, horseback and airplane. But they found no trace of the petite waitress or her kidnaper. Her parents and top investigative officers feared her body would be found in one of the region's many lakes.

Her mother, Mrs. Raymond Roberts, said "I've never had any hope they will find her alive." Her father said "I had hope until about yesterday noon, but I've given up now."

FBI agents took command of the investigation on the theory that the girl could have been taken across the nearby Indiana, Missouri or Kentucky state lines.

The agents refused to talk officially of the men who had been questioned. But informed sources said at least five men had undergone interrogation and intensive questioning was planned for the ex-convict.

GOP ISSUES BLAST

Demos Accused Of Kicking South

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Republican leaders blasted the Democratic party Friday for kicking the South and charged a vote for independent electors was a vote for the Democratic ticket.

I. Lee Potter, a Virginian who heads the Republican campaign in the South, said "Southerners are fed up with the national Democratic party. They have been kicked around by (national chairman) Paul Butler for the past four years."

Potter also said the GOP campaign in the South is going "very, very well. We are pleased with what we have found in Mississippi."

Meanwhile, Charles Sullivan of Clarksdale, a leader in a state Democratic movement for independent electors called on the Republican leaders to answer a series of questions at a televised press conference Sunday.

Most of the questions pertain to the GOP's civil rights platform and included whether the Nixon-Lodge ticket pledge themselves to enact the platform plank on civil rights.

Pointing to the civil rights section and a statement that the party is proud of the civil rights record of the Eisenhower administration, Sullivan asked the leaders if they agree with it or would they publicly repudiate it at Jackson, Little Rock, Ark., Detroit, New York and Chicago.

Sullivan also noted the use of federal troops in the Little Rock school integration crisis by the President, and the voting procedure investigation ordered in Southern states by a Republican attorney general.

If asked if the Republican leaders were proud of these and the writing of the school integration decision by Chief Justice Earl Warren, a Republican appointee to the Supreme Court.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ha Davis Hardage; a daughter, Mrs. R. P. Broussard; Groves, Tex.; two brothers, Zeke Hardage, Madden, Miss., and Sam Hardage, Jackson, Miss., and two grandchildren.

Palbearers will be J. P. Hinton Sr., B. F. Hamilton, Troy Ham, Cleo Hale, Bob Golden and Pierce Crawford.

Honorary pallbearers will be members of his Sunday School class.

It was announced yesterday police said he was involved in an altercation with Johnson in the memory of Mr. Hardage is to be 3400 block of Renwick Street, also established at the Downsville was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Potter will be joined by Sen. Thurston Morton (R-Ky), GOP national chairman, and Robert Finch, national campaign director for vice president Nixon, for a conference of leaders from 12 Southern states this weekend.

Urban League Eyes U.N. Help

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The Greater New Orleans Urban League Friday announced plans to go to the United Nations for help in feeding thousands of the city's children, taken off welfare rolls by new state laws against negligence.

It's painful to see small children crying out for food. Some people have even fallen out and landed from hunger in my office," league Executive Director J. Harvey Kerns said.

Kerns said hundreds of Negro women and children have flocked to his office this week pleading for money for food.

He said the league board of directors voted to seek U.N. aid if city, state or federal funds are not provided.

The 1960 Louisiana laws, which stop state welfare payments to all children in Louisiana whose mothers gave birth out of wedlock or who lived at common-law partners after starting to receive welfare aid.

Harriman Plugs Aid To Senegal

DAKAR, Senegal (UPI) — Former U. S. Ambassador Averell Harriman, on the first leg of an African fact-finding mission for Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy, stepped smack into the Mali crisis Friday.

"I know now that the United States must be ready to indicate next January to what extent it can come to the aid of Senegal," Harriman said in an exclusive interview with United Press International.

The statement, referring to Senegal and omitting mention of the Mali Federation, was expected to create some uneasiness in French diplomatic circles.

Voice Of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

PATRICE MUNSEL WRITES—In lieu of the fact that there are many crazy plots in opera it has been hinted that singers, through osmosis, are a crazy lot too and that anything can happen to them. I beg to differ. It's marriage! Nothing very outlandish happened to me until I met my husband, Robert Schuler, and sometimes I have a sneaking suspicion that ever since I have made up for lost time.

Consider my first encounter with him. Through a mutual friend I had heard of this paragon of virtue and a date had been arranged. It so happened that we had our first date on the night when the circus opened at Madison Square Garden—a charity affair for which I had agreed to ride an elephant.

There I was, perched high on an elephant, and there was Bob and our mutual friend way below on terra firma. Being very short-sighted and without my glasses or contact lenses I only had a vague impression of what Bob really looked like, but fate took matters quickly in hand.

In the next moment the elephant made an unexpected move and without much to do I lost my balance, sailed through the air and landed smack at Bob's feet.

Now, I have never been of the belief that that is the position for a good wife, but lying there on the ground afforded me an unclouded look at him. I liked what I saw and despite a sprained ankle I kept my date. The rest is history—at least to me.

During our engagement period Bob stayed at the house of friends on Long Island. One night as he was riding up the driveway he saw a luminous vapor crossing in front of his car. When he mentioned this to his friends they laughed and thought "ghosts in deed!"

A week or so later I returned from a concert tour and spent the weekend at the same house. A dutiful fiancée is not supposed to laugh at ghost stories and so

I listened attentively. That night, as I was about to fall asleep, a luminous vapor crossed my bedroom and disappeared into the bathroom. My curiosity aroused, I too went into the bathroom and saw nothing. What made the matter most uncanny was that there was no way out of that bathroom except through my bedroom.

When Bob and I compared notes the following morning we agreed that it was actually very nice to have a friendly ghost around. Our hosts, of course, were in hysterics until a few nights later the ghost started operating the tickle-tape machine in our host's study, right in front of his eyes. From that moment on we were no longer considered ripe for the looney bin.

I spoke before of being short-sighted. This certainly has played a role in my life. On many occasions friends have thought me a snob because I would walk right past them without so much as a hello or a nod of the head. Let's face it, without my glasses or contact lenses I could stand next to President Eisenhower without recognizing him. Once I was foolish enough to appear on Perry Como's television show without my contact lenses.

In the middle of a duct with him I lost the price and searching feverishly for the words on the teleprompter saw exactly nothing. I certainly made a mess of that little sing-fest.

When you are a wife you automatically become a hostess, and I must confess that I've done some strange entertaining in my life.

There was the time when I had worked diligently to prepare a meal, and a quite sumptuous one, only to pour boiling water over my hand in the last minute. Maybe it was my short sightedness again or just plain nuttiness. In any event, I was rushed off to the hospital and when I returned my guests had a nicely ruined meal.

Perhaps more romantic was the time when I entertained some 200 guests almost in the dark. I saw almost, because there were a few candles in the house. This house was a 50-room affair on Long Island in which we lived before we moved to our present, slightly less sprawling domicile.

Somewhat, there had never been an occasion to turn on the lights in all 50 rooms before this party. By using them all simultaneously, including some very fancy garden illumination, we not only blew out all the fuses in the house, but also the generator in the Locust Valley power station. Never mind our guests. Just think how some of our neighbors must have loved us that night!

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

EYE CHANGES WITH AGE
The middle aged spread, gray hair, and wrinkling are some of the obvious signs of aging. So are reading glasses for the fortyish man or woman who is finding close work difficult. This condition (presbyopia) comes on when the lenses and their surrounding muscles begin to lose their tone and efficiency.

The point of focus recedes when this occurs and newspapers or books must be held farther away when reading. It becomes necessary to step out of a telephone booth to read a number in the directory. As the old joke has it, "I don't need glasses—I need longer arms."

Close work can be done at 9 inches but when presbyopia sets in, 13 to 18 inches are more comfortable for seeing and reading. This presents a new problem because the farther away the near point, the less distinct the stitches and fine type. A stronger light helps but sooner or later eye-strain occurs unless adequate glasses are worn.

Less obvious signs of the passing years develop in other parts of the eyes. Cataracts develop later in life when the lens becomes more opaque to light. The arteries of the retina harden with the passing years but the victim seldom is bothered because vision is not affected.

Floater are more prevalent in older age groups. They consist of clumps of cells or strands of fiber that float about in the liquid within the eyes.

The movement of these particles thru the field of vision often scares the daylight out of an individual; he phones the physician for an immediate appointment. The opacities are most noticeable when the eyes are turned left or right or up or down because they shift with movement.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

CHRONIC SINUSITIS
H.L.T. writes: In your opinion, has a sinus condition ever been cured? I get relief now and then but symptoms always return.

REPLY
Yes, a recurring sinus infection deserves a thorough medical study to determine whether the structure is draining properly. If not, surgery may be needed. I assume allergy is not responsible and that the attacks are bona fide sinus infections and not nose colds. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on sinus disorders.

VIRAL INFECTION
W.L.N. writes: What is Cocksackie?

REPLY
Viruses of the Cocksackie group cause various symptoms. Cocksackie B, for example, leads to Pleurodynia, or devil's grip. The victim suffers from sharp pain in the chest or abdomen or both, along with fever, headache, and dizziness. Cocksackie A infection is called herpangina, or three day fever. Blisters like sores develop in or on the mouth. This virus was first recognized in Cocksackie, N.Y., hence the name.

SWALLOWED PIN
H.W. writes: I know if a person swallows a closed safety pin it will pass, but what happens if the pin is open?

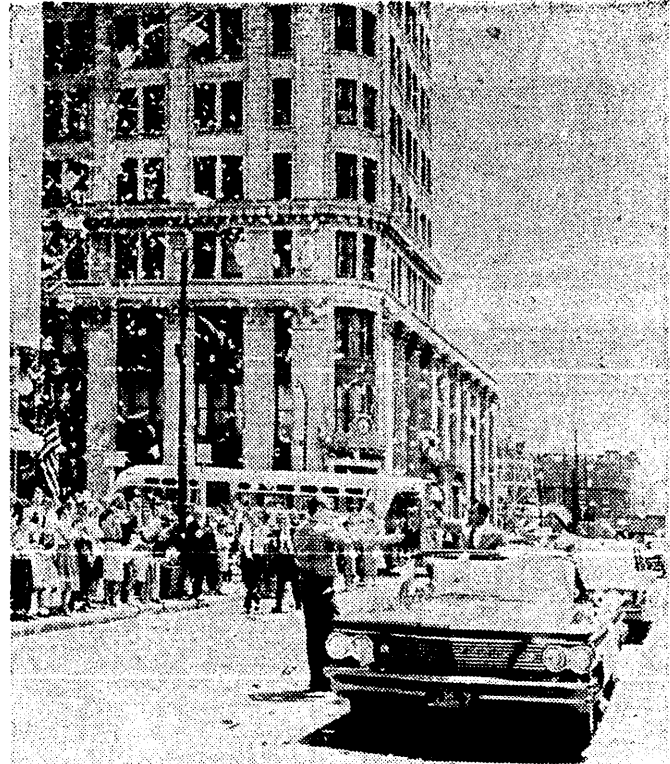

REPLY
This is where the surgeon takes over. The open pin usually gets stuck or penetrates the wall and causes peritonitis.

FIFTH POLIO SHOT
Mrs. M. writes: Does a child who has had four polio shots need a fifth?

REPLY
There is a good possibility that an annual (booster) injection will be needed to maintain adequate protection against polio.

DEAR ABBY
Neighborly Interest
Can Be Objectionable

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Yesterday a policeman knocked on my door and told me I would either have to put a diaper on my baby or keep him in the house. He is only 14 months old and I see nothing wrong with letting his play outside in his play pen with nothing on. One of my neighbors reported me and I have a pretty good idea which one. Do you think it is right to report me for something like that?—ANGRY MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your neighbor should have spoken to "You" about it. Although the sight of a bouncing bare baby boy is likely to offend very few people, it's those few whom you must consider. A small diaper, in the future, will prevent a 3-cornered fight.

DEAR ABBY: My wife sleeps with some deal on her head and I can't tell if she is going to bed or going to the moon. Not only that, but at bedtime she smears a lot of 200p all over her face which has put an end to my giving her a goodnight kiss.

What is wrong with women today? They try everything in the book to hook a man and once they get him, they get themselves up like spooks just when they should be their prettiest. Please print this, Abby. I might wake up some of these sleepy time gals.

—STAN
DEAR ABBY: I have known this boy for about three months and I really liked him. I thought he was a perfect gentleman, but last night I had a date with him and he got fresh with me. I asked him to take me home. I have never been so disappointed in a person in all my life. I never gave him any reason to think I was that kind of girl.

"Don't blame the hard day at the office. You looked that way when you left this morning"

Mayner Admits Expenses Paid
Trenton, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Mayner's office said Friday he never kept it secret that the Port of New York Authority paid the expenses of his trips on its behalf.

He made the comment in commenting on a story in the New York World-Telegram & Sun that the cost and other details of the European trip are contained in records which the authority refuses to turn over to a congressional investigating subcommittee.

The governor's office said he announced at the time that the authority was paying for a 1955 trip to Europe and a 1959 South American tour.

What's Up Front Should Determine Auburn Record

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

(Seventh in a series of 12 articles on Southeastern Conference football prospects. Tomorrow: LSU.)

Ken Rice pretty well personifies Auburn football. First of all, he is a line-man, a tackle, and all of Auburn's many victories over the past three years have been won up front.

Secondly, he is big, 250 pounds, and Auburn's line has been pro-size lately. And Rice is good and Auburn has been very good.

After last year's slump — the Plainsmen lost three games — you know, something of a comedown from 1957's unblemished record and '58's one-loss mark — Ralph Jordan's club could be a nice better this year despite the loss of all-Americans Jackie Burkett and Zeke Smith.

The reasons for optimism are Rice, who made a few all-American teams last fall and will doubtless make quite a few more this November, bruising fullback Ed Dwyas and quarterback Bobby Hunt.

Rice is not only big but fast also. He has run 50 yards in six seconds, shaking the earth with every step. He can play tackle and guard equally well but is ticketed to spend most of his time at tackle.

Dyas, a straight-A pre-med student, gained 500 yards last fall and kicked four of six field goals. Tiger coaches believe he's the best Auburn fullback ever, even better than all-American Joe Childress.

Hunt was the starting quarterback last fall as a sophomore, gaining 552 yards for a sparkling 6.6 average. He completed 15 of 37 passes and is considered his team's top defensive back.

These three are the best, but by no means all, that Auburn offers.

Two juniors, Dave Edwards (185) and Bobby Foret (195) will probably be the top two boys at left end with Joe Leitchman (195) the regular on the other side. Bart Manous (195) may pass Edwards and Foret at left but soph Don Downs (200), a great prospect but green, is the only highly-regarded relief for Leitchman.

Rice and Billy Wilson give Auburn two monster-sized tackles. Both weigh in at 250 and scare opposing backs. Soph Winky Giddens (220) will back up Wilson along with fellow soph David Hill and Sam Galloway, both 225. Dave Woodward (220) is a fine second unit tackle behind Rice and sophs Joe Baughan (220) and Jimmy Jones (220) are good bets for future stardom.

Left guard, with Smith gone, is considered the biggest question mark on the club. Jerry Guldage (205) will start but there's not a strong field behind him. Soph Steve Osborne (190) is the best bet for the No. 2 left guard.

Starter G. W. Clapp (205) returns at right guard and he'll be backed up by big (240) George Gross, a converted tackle. The rest of the field is sophomoreish.

There are two good boys returning at center to replace Burkett. Wayne Frazier (220) was the No. 2 pivot last fall but soph Jim Price (225) was the starter in spring drills which Frazier missed because of a broken foot. Frazier's foot gives him trouble, the Plainsmen will be in trouble here because there's nothing much behind the two top men.

Hunt (180) and letterman Bryant Harvard (185) are back at quarterback and redshirt Joe Overton (195) gives the position depth. No trouble here.

In comparison with the tackles, the probable starting fullbacks are dwarfs. Jimmy Pettus, the left half, weighs 165 and right half Don Machen 155 pounds less. Pettus, probably the best break-away threat on a club that needs one badly, underwent a knee operation last spring.

Grid Giants Cut Roster To 49

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP)—The New York Football Giants trimmed their roster to 49 players Friday by dropping three rookies before flying to Louisville, Ky.

The three are Bill Poland, Rhode Island; Roger Dwinell, Norwich; and Laneair Roberts, Georgia.

The Giants meet the Dallas Cowboys in a pre-season tuneup at Louisville Saturday.

KEN RICE

operation last spring and is a question mark. Second-string fullback John McGeeever will move to left if Pettus' knee doesn't come around. Soph Jimmy Burson was impressive during the spring.

Machen, tough despite his scant poundage, has senior Bobby Lawder (185) behind him as well as two more veterans and a good soph, Jimmy Bonner (200).

If McGeeever has to move to left half, Larry Laster (195) will be the No. 2 fullback behind Dyas.

(205) and may be in any case. The situation: ENDS—Same. TACKLES—Stronger. GUARDS—Weaker. QUARTERBACK — Probably stronger. HALFBACK — Weaker if Pettus doesn't play. FULLBACK — Stronger. SUMMARY — Auburn could be the fairest village of the plains again.

Ruston Lions Set Grid Jamboree

RUSTON (Special) — Plans for tilt, the Homer Pelicans, guided the finest football jamboree in the history of the event have with the Jonesboro-Hodge Tilt. The event will be the first since the Ruston Lions' club in preparing to stage the 11th annual grid festival at Ruston High School stadium on Friday night, September 2.

President David P. Colvin announced this week that six teams will participate in the event, playing three games, with each game consisting of two ten-minute halves.

The first game of the jamboree will be played between the Bernice Bears, coached by Johnnie Emmons, and the Couchatta Choctaws, with Clyde Berry at the helm. Kickoff time is scheduled for 8 p.m. for the first game, with the second game to follow immediately. In the second

Ramos Hurts 5-4 Decision Over Tigers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pedro Ramos shrugged off a bump start Friday night and pitched Washington to a 5-4 victory over Detroit.

The Cuban right-hander was pounded for five hits and four runs in the first two innings and the Tigers threatened to score again in each of the next five innings, but Ramos pitched his way out of trouble each time.

Then, in the fifth, Ramos led off with a double and scored the tying run on Lenny Green's single. Detroit scored two in the first on Ossie Virgil's double, a walk and singles by Charlie Maxwell and Frank Bolling. Two more runs came across in the second on a walk, Norm Cash's triple and Maxwell's double.

The Senators banged Tiger starter Jim Bunning (8-10) for three runs in the bottom of the first. Billy Gardner singled, Green reached first on an error and Harmon Killebrew drove in Gardner with a long fly. Lemon walked and, with two out, Dan Doherty doubled to drive in two more runs.

Washington tied it in the fifth on Ramos' run, then moved ahead in the sixth as Jim Lemon led off with his 30th home run.

Ramos (10-13) fanned four and walked four, retiring the Tigers in order in the eighth and ninth.

Phillies Drop Cubs, 4-2, As Roberts Wins

CHICAGO (AP) — Lee Walls' three-run, inside-the-park homer and a solo shot by Johnny Callison helped Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies defeat the Chicago Cubs 4-2 Friday.

Roberts, gaining his ninth triumph against 12 defeats, got the Phillies off to a good start in their bid to vacate the National League cellar. A sweep of the three-game series would lift the Phillies into seventh place past the Cubs.

Roberts scattered nine hits and had only one troublesome inning, the second. He walked two and struck out five.

Ernie Banks led off the second with a fly ball which center fielder Tony Gonzalez lost in the sun. Banks was credited with a triple and came all the way home when Gonzalez threw wildly to the infield. Ed Bouchee's double and a single by Moe Thacker followed, giving the Cubs a 2-0 lead.

Bob Anderson protected the margin until the seventh. Callison led off with a bunt single before Anderson retired the next two men. Gonzalez walked and Walls' long drive hit the wall in left and bounded into foul territory for his fourth homer.

Allison led off the eighth with his seventh homer, a drive which carried out of the park and into the street.

Richie Ashburn, a former Philly, rapped out four singles after bouncing out his first time up.

SOVIETS BEAT MEXICO

Big 'O' Leads U.S. Cagers To 88-54 Victory Over Italy

ROME (UPI) — The United States opened the defense of its Olympic basketball championship by polishing off Italy, 88-54, Friday night in a first-round game.

Russia, given the best chance of derailing the heavily-favored Yanks, didn't even need seven-foot, two-inch Jan Kruminich in turning back Mexico, 66-49.

A Soviet spokesman said Kruminich did not play "because we figured we could win without him."

The U.S. team, led by Oscar Robertson's 18 points, gained an early lead and never trailed thereafter. The Yanks held a 42-17 advantage at halftime.

Ten minutes after the game started, the U.S. led 34-10, thanks to Kelley of the University of Kansas. Kelley could have played but Newell explained "he has an upset stomach and as things turned out it was better to keep him on the bench."

The Palazzetto dello Sport, where the game was played, was jammed with many American rooters. It seemed that every member of the U.S. Olympic contingent was there.

The Americans started to chant "Go, go, go" soon after the start of the game. The Italian fans then picked it up, but it didn't help their team, which tried hard but couldn't match the clever Yanks.

Brazil, another strong entry, had to pull out all the stops in nipping Puerto Rico, 75-72, while Czechoslovakia advanced with a 56-53 victory over France.

Kruminich, the gigantic wood-cutter who proved clumsy when he appeared in the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne, still had been the most ballyhooed member of the Soviet team this year because of his size. Even with big Jan sitting on the bench, the Russians had simply too much height for the Mexicans.

Mexico, after trailing through the first seven minutes of deliberate play, brought a stir from the crowd when it caught the Soviets at 9-9.

But that brief flurry was the only threat the Russians faced in the game. The Soviets quickly opened a 28-17 halftime lead and remained well in control of the game during the second half by controlling backboard play at both ends. The Mexicans staged a game rally to cut the margin to 10 points at one time, but could come no closer.

Alfredo Almanza of Mexico took game scoring honors with 15 points, while M. Valoman led Russia with 13 and Semanov, one of the fastest players on the Russian team, had 12.

In other games played Friday, Hungary trounced Japan, 93-66; Poland won a rough-and-tumble game from the Philippines, 86-68; and Yugoslavia edged Bulgaria, 67-62.

Hungary, with a decided height advantage, led Japan at halftime, 48-28, and then held off a Japanese rally which cut the deficit to 12 points before running out of gas.

Polish center A. Nartowski starred in the victory over the Philippines with 29 points, while Little C. Badian had 17 for the Filipinos. Here, too, height was decisive as Poland—limited to a 55-49 lead midway in the second half—broke loose to turn the game into a rout.

PITCHING SPARKLES

Orioles Beat A's Twice, 2-1, 11-3

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles got superior pitching from Steve Barber in a starting role and Hoyt Wilhelm in a relief role to beat Kansas City, 2-1, 11-3 in a doubleheader before 16,582 Friday night.

Barber, the strong-armed left-hander, held the last-place Athletics to four scattered singles in the opener as he went the route for his ninth win. He has lost four.

Wilhelm, who took over for starter Skinny Brown in the third inning of the nightcap, held the A's to one hit and a single, unearned run over the final six innings. The win was Wilhelm's 10th in 17 decisions.

The Orioles lead off on four Kansas City hurriers for 16 hits in the free-swinging nightcap.

Gene Woodling had a solo home run and a single, Gus Triandos hit a double and two singles for three RBI and Merv Breeding had two hits and a pair of RBIs.

The Orioles scored three times in the third and then put it out of reach in the fourth with two singles, a double and three walks for three more runs.

Left-hander Bud Daley (13-12) was the starter and loser for Kansas City.

Jim Gentile, Oriole first baseman, was ejected from the game in the eighth for protesting a call at second base by Umpire Ed Runge. Gentile was thrown out by Bill Tuttle trying to stretch a single into a double.

The Woodling-Triandos-Breeding combination also clicked in the opener against Ned Garver (1-7).

Breeding drove home the winning run in the ninth with a sacrifice fly to center that scored pinch runner Jim Busby. Pinch hitter Woodling had set the stage for Breeding by punching a double to left center after Triandos had opened the inning with a single.

Barber lost his shutout in the eighth when he gave up a walk to Garver, a single to Bill Tuttle and a sacrifice fly to Dick Williams.

Right-hander gave up nine runs, two of them unearned.

Craig, 5-1, a loser in only one of 11 decisions over two seasons, had a three-hit shutout with two out in the ninth. Then Cordy Coleman singled and scored on a single by Chico Cardenas that followed a walk.

Jean Ashley Giant-Killer In Women's Am

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Jean Ashley, a 21-year-old smooth stroking school teacher from Chanute, Kan., continued her giant-killer role in the National Women's Amateur Golf Championship Friday with a one-up semifinal victory over Western Champion Mrs. Ann Casey Johnston, Mason City, Iowa.

Miss Ashley and Miss Gunderson won the first time in their careers in the 36-hole championship match at the Tulsa Country Club Saturday.

Miss Ashley, who sidelined defending champion Barbara McIntire of Lake Park, Fla., in Thursday's quarter-finals, took command of the match by winning four straight holes from the ninth through the 12th. She protected her advantage against a rally of the veteran 38-year-old Iowan.

Miss Gunderson won the last three holes after trailing from the start to beat Miss Eller, with whom she has been a constant companion throughout this summer as a visitor in the Eller home.

This match took on the aspects of a friendly twosome as each player applauded when the other made a good shot. Several putts of at least two feet were conceded on many holes.

Reynolds Fires Cardinals Past Baltimore, 31-21

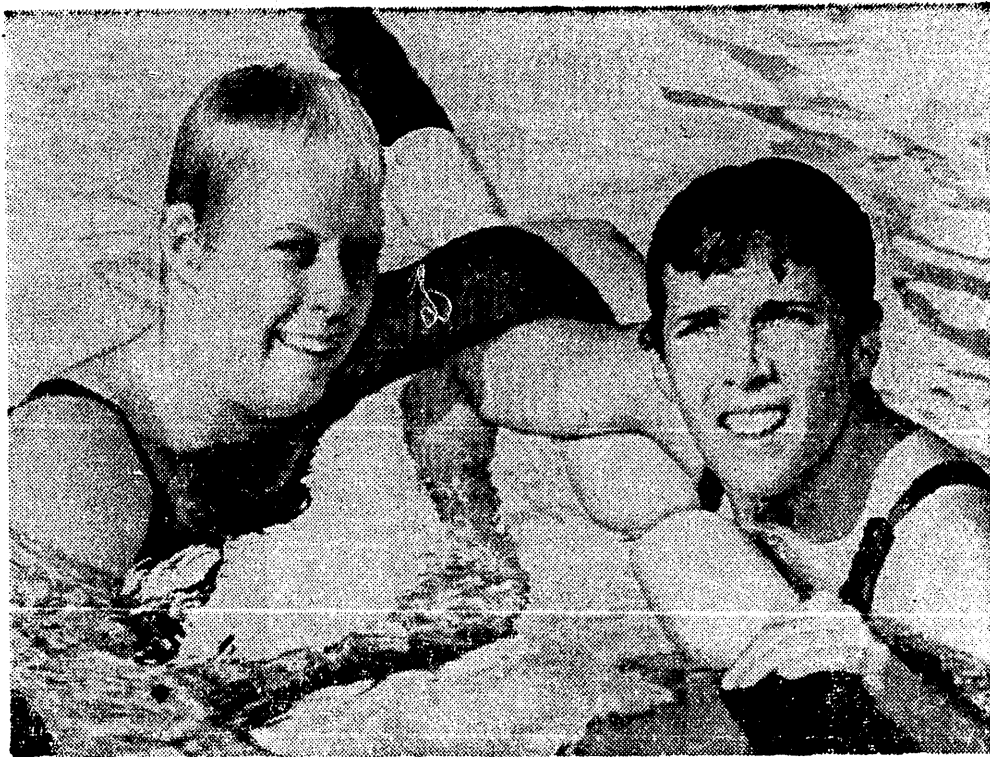

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals, paced by quarterbacks John Roach and M. C. Reynolds, surprised the world champion Baltimore Colts 31-21 Friday night in a National Football League exhibition game.

Roach's passes set up three first half touchdowns and gave the Cardinals a 21-14 intermission lead.

Reynolds took over in the second half and set up the final St. Louis TD with his aerials. Bobby Jones Conrad got the winners after three points with a 13-yard field goal.

Johnny Unitas threw two touchdown passes for Baltimore, both to end Raymond Berry. His 27-yarder to Berry set up the third score, Alan Ameche plunging over from the 1 for six points.

Unitas played less than half the game, with sub Ray Brown gaining some necessary experience.

CHRIS VON SALZA (left), of Saratoga, Calif., relaxes in pool after record-shattering 1:01.9 clocking for the 100-meter freestyle in Olympic swimming competition at Rome Friday. She won her qualifying heat by more than four yards over Germany's Ursula Brunner (right). Miss Von Salza broke the mark of 1:02 flat set by Australia's Dawn Fraser at Melbourne in 1956. BROGLIO WINS 16TH

Musial's Two-Run Homer Puts Skids To Pirates, 3-1

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Stan Musial, a thorn in the side of Bob Friend, walloped a seventh inning home run with Joe Cunningham aboard Friday night, lifting the St. Louis Cardinals and Ernie Broglio past the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1.

The Cardinal veteran's home run defeated Friend 3-2 in 12 innings at Pittsburgh last Aug. 11 and this blow to the roof, Musial's 13th, was the first he has hit since then. Broglio, who fired a four-hit, also was the winner over Friend that night.

Broglio racked up his 16th victory to go with six losses and was in control throughout. The big right-hander now has won 11 out of his last 13 decisions.

The Pirates' only tally came in the sixth on Don Hoak's double, Bill Mazeroski's single and a sacrifice fly by Bill Virdon.

That matched a second inning Redbird score on Moose Moryn's first of four singles, a walk and Hal Smith's single. Moryn has hit safely in his last six trips to the plate.

Friend's defeat left him with a 13-11 record and cut the league leader's margin over the third-place Cards to 7½ games.

Williams Trails Cardinal Slugger

By JOE RICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The next run Ted Williams drives home will push the Boston Red Sox slugger into a tie with Hall of Famer Al Simmons for fifth place among the all-time runs batted in leaders of the major leagues.

Including the 59 runs he's knocked in this year, Williams has driven in 1,828 since he joined the Red Sox in 1939. Ted doesn't figure to climb any higher than fifth because the big four in the RBI department—Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Ty Cobb and Jimmy Foxx—all are over the 1,900 mark.

Ruth's 2,209 is tops. Another milestone, Foxx's runner-up 534 lifetime home runs, also appears to be out of Williams' reach, unless he reconsiders and decides to play another year.

Williams, with 21 homers this season, has a career total of 516. He would need to average better than one home run for every two remaining games to pass his former Boston teammate.

Among the currently active performers, Williams trails Stan Musial in every lifetime offensive department except in home runs and runs batted in. Although he has batted 2,110 fewer times than the St. Louis Cardinal star, the Bostonian tops Musial by exactly 100 RBI and 92 home runs.

Through games of Thursday, Aug. 25, Musial ranks second to Ruth, among the all-time greats in long hits (1,268); third in total bases (5,572), and doubles (674); fifth in hits (3,127); sixth in home runs (424); and seventh in runs (1,301) and runs batted in (1,726).

Because of his two service hitches covering a span of five years and various injuries and ailments which kept him out of parts of three others, Williams is well

Trainer, Groom

Lose Licenses In

Horse Drug Case

CHICAGO (AP) — The Illinois Racing Board said Friday the licenses of a trainer and a groom have been revoked for stimulating a horse with a drug at Arlington Park.

Evert Shultz, secretary, said trainer Chester Bowles of Jefferson, Ky., and groom Melvin Jones of Detroit were accused of administering Amphetamines (Benzedrine) to the 2-year-old Sea Green, winner of his second race Aug. 3.

The colt is owned by A. E. Gratton, Louisville, Ky., and J. Daley, Wilmington, Del.

Laboratory tests showed the presence of the drug during a routine urinalysis.

PALE HOSE WIN, 9-2

Baumann Checks Bosox On 7 Hits

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP)—Chicago south-paw Frank Baumann checked his ex-Boston teammates on seven hits Friday night in pitching the pennant - hungry American League defenders to a 9-2 victory.

Baumann, principal in the "steal-deal" of the season, got his chief support from the usually weak-hitting Luis Aparacio and Jim Landis.

The triumph kept the White Sox opportunists breathing down the necks of pace-setting New York. It was launched in the second inning when Chicago pounced on two Red Sox errors to open up a 4-0 lead.

Chicago got its other five runs in a big fifth inning.

Aparicio, a .272 hitter, drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a double. He also walked, raced to his 38th stolen base and turned in a sparkling game afled.

Center fielder Landis doubled, singled twice, drove in two runs, scored twice and made a great out-rushing stab of Frank Malzone's sinking liner.

Baumann contributed a run-producing single to aid his own cause. The victory was his ninth against five losses. In five years at Boston his total mark was 13-8.

Boston sent Baumann to Chicago last winter for first baseman Ron Jackson who is back in the minor leagues after being reswapped to Milwaukee for Ray Boone.

Consecutive doubles by Don Buddin doubled home pinch hitter Baumann's shutout bid. Buddin double home pinch hitter Carroll Hardy who had walked in the eighth.

Chicago hopped on a messed-up doubleplay attempt to start the rout.

After Smith walked in the second, Sherm Lollar grounded to second baseman Pumpsie Green. The force was made at second but Buddin's relay throw went into the dugout for an error.

Delta Beta Sigmas Given Dance, Informal Party

The Crystal Ballroom of the Virginia Hotel was transformed by elves and lions into a "fantasy land" Friday evening when pledges of Delta Beta Sigma, high school social sorority, entertained members with a gala dance.

All around the walls of the room were elves sitting on or standing near large mushrooms; and behind the bandstand was a large lion wearing a crown which bore the Greek letters of the sorority. Two large elves were suspended in the air. The Roller Coasters furnished music from 9 till 1.

As a gift, each member was presented with a stuffed lion and a silver disk. Key chains were given each sponsor, and the mothers and chaperones received corsages.

INFORMAL PARTY On Thursday afternoon Miss Lyons entertained the senior members, senior pledges and officers of Delta Beta Sigma with an informal party.

Those who called between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock were Misses Sandy Holloway, Teddy Dixon, Kay Branch, Brenda Cobb, Rita Camp, Judy Pankey, Dee LaGrange, Melany Wood, Betty Swink, Judy Roth, Micky Shaughnessy, Nancy Shaw, Judy Reagan, Jennifer Chavis, Sandra Guyton, Lynn Smith, Carol Bryan, Lea Thompson, Lee Ann Lewis, Charlotte Overton, Rita McNite, Nancy Bartelton, Tommie Jean Dixon, Pat Fulton, Janice Gallien, Benny Grant, Janet Farace, Bunny Buckner, Ann Rinehart, Gretchen Masur and Eleanor Harmon.

Guests Due For Prominent Wedding Here

Claiming wide interest in the city is the approaching marriage of Miss Sue Stubbs and Haydn Cutler Jr., to be solemnized Thursday, September 1, in Grace Episcopal Church.

Among the out-of-town visitors arriving Monday for the event are college classmates of Miss Stubbs, Miss Annabelle Sweeney of San Antonio, Texas; Miss Lida Fee Matthews of Portsmouth, Ohio; Miss Emily Fitzhugh of Jackson, Mississippi; Miss Judith Jones of Alexandria; and Miss Cynthia Dawkins of Shreveport.

Arriving later in the week will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latham of Alexandria, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. James Norris of Charleston, South Carolina, and New Orleans; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chumney and sons, Earl and Tommy, of Mexico City.

Also to be here for the wedding are the Rev. and Mrs. John Allen of Vicksburg, Mississippi; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Jones of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh of Jackson, Mississippi; Judge and Mrs. Ben Dawkins and Mrs. Whitfield Jack of Shreveport; Mrs. Joseph Parsons of Old Greenwich, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cutler of Houston, Texas; Robert Buford Hargrove of Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, Hugh Lawson, and Mrs. Frank Stubbs of New Orleans; Mike Gregory of Dothan, Alabama; Miss Moselle Nepper of Dallas, Texas; Miss Rose Beverly Burks of Roanoke, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fowlkes and Miss Meade Fowlkes of Hattiesboro, Mississippi.

Mrs. Dawson Honored With Informal Fete

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitley in West Monroe was the setting last Sunday of a picnic lunch honoring Mrs. J. W. Dawson.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of pink and red roses by Mrs. J. O. Scott.

Guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dawson of Winnfield, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Dawson of Calvin, Mr. and Mrs. James Dawson of Baton Rouge, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tullos, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Humphries, Mrs. Cora Brown, Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winingar, Elizabeth Brown, Larry Brown, Diane Dawson, Jeffrey Humphries and Roxie Tullos.

New Light On Lamps Shows Wealth Of Designs

By BETTY PEPIS

To judge from the wholesale offerings at the lamp showings in Chicago and New York earlier this summer, shoppers looking for new light this fall will have a wealth of designs from which to choose. For, reflecting the furniture market, there is practically not a style or period that has been ignored.

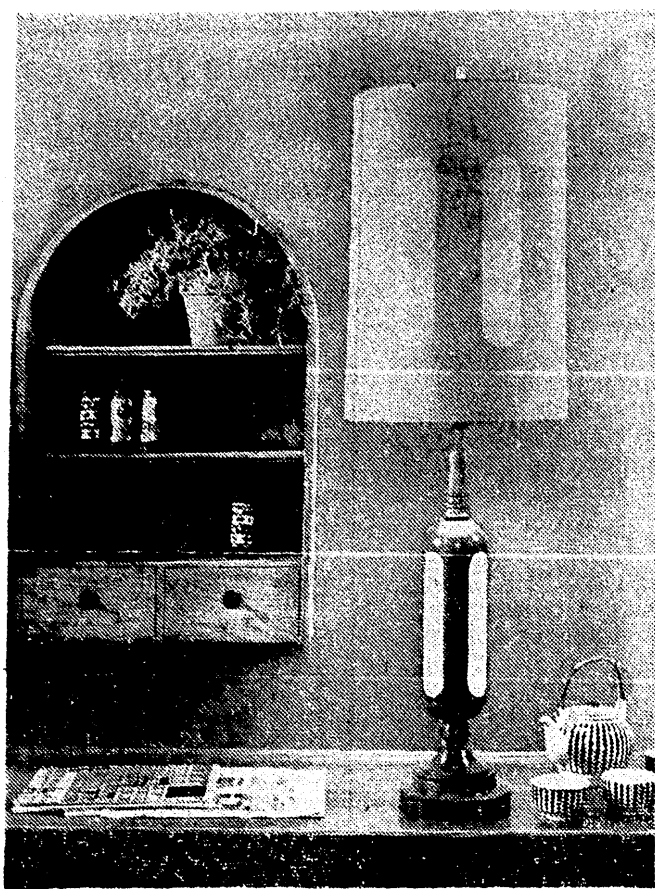

There is such a variety, as a matter of fact, that, as a designer visiting from Europe remarked, it could all get most confusing about what goes with what. To this end, one company at least has sought to aid the amateur. By working with a furniture manufacturer he has introduced a group of lamps that blend with that maker's furniture.

The spirit of the furniture is borrowed from the Riviera; hence the name of the pieces and their coordinates — Palazzo, a name intended to waft the air of the Mediterranean right through some of our own American picture windows. Unlike some earlier attempts at correlation the lamps do not duplicate either the material of the furniture or the design motifs, but are selected to blend with the general air borne-ness for the most part, from a formal French interior.

the late Eighteenth and early Nineteenth Centuries; revivals of interest in the classic styles of Greece and Rome.

Other bases, though not so well labeled, are equally as clearly allied to specific styles. A number of wood carvings, simple and sleek, show their allegiance to furniture of modern design, though some of those in the new buttery brown finishes of mahogany might happily blend with furniture derived from English Eighteenth Century pieces.

Similarly are those imports from the Near and Far East, whether fashioned of pierced brass or incised pewter. Both would lend that Oriental air of mystery to a contemporary interior and would keep happy company with accessories from that part of the world. At the moment popular for injecting a note of ornamental richness in simple, modern rooms. They would team equally well, however, with the Eighteenth Century decor mentioned above; for during that time, as now, interest in the Orient ran high. Equally adaptable to the brilliantly colored, intricately shaped Venetian glass which could lend a note of brightness to the color scheme of even a formal French interior.

CONTEMPORARY LAMP takes its clue from direction followed by modern furniture. Here the smooth finish of the wood base exposes the grain of the wood as does contemporary furniture. Curvilinear line and sculptural feeling also follows current trend of furniture design which has shifted from square to rounded lines. Another new trend is the correlation of screen and base seen here in the repetition of the lozenge pattern on both.

CLASSIC THEMES, very much on the decorating horizon, are reiterated in the lamp offerings for fall. The feminine figure here, adapted from a Greek statue, was especially designed to blend with a new collection of furniture influenced by Mediterranean design motifs. Fluting of china base reiterates spirit of carving on lamp table on which it stands. Pediment shape of headboard, though entirely different in shape, derives from the same classical sources.

Swim Champion Gives Method Of Suit Care

Florence Chadwick, only woman to conquer the English Channel from both sides, has had years of experience with swim-suits. And she has her own special way of taking care of them. Here's how she goes about washing a suit:

1. Add about a capful of liquid cold water soap to approximate two quarts of cold water, running the water to work up lots of suds.
2. Soak the suit about three minutes, squeezing the suds gently through it.
3. If there are spots or deep-set dirt, remove them with an undiluted application of the soap, rubbing carefully with a soft brush.
4. Rinse thoroughly.
5. Roll the suit in a towel to remove excess moisture, then lay out flat to dry. If it's convenient, Miss Chadwick prefers to hang it up to dry at dusk and avoid direct sunlight.

YOUR PROBLEMS Okay To Hop-Scotch With Her Daughters

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am 35 years old and the mother of four active children. My daughters are 11 and 9 years of age and they love for me to play hop-scotch with them. It's great fun for me, and I enjoy the exercise.

My husband says it's a disgrace for a woman my age to be hopping around in front of the house with the kids. I say if grown men can play ball with their sons what's wrong with a mother playing hop-scotch?

Why shouldn't women be able to indulge in a harmless sport without criticism? What do you think? —YOUNG IN HEART

Dear Young: If you are dressed respectfully (not in shorts) I see nothing wrong with playing hop-scotch in front of the house with your children.

(P.S. Do be careful when you jump that third square, Mom, the old bones don't knit like they used to!)

Dear Ann Landers: We have five children ranging from 7 to 10 years of age, and only two bedrooms. We bought this house when we had only two children. I say we need a bigger house. My husband says the kids will be grown and gone before we know it and we'll be stuck.

We have cots all over and you'd think we were camping out. We could easily add two rooms but my husband says it's not worth it. I say why not live a decent life while you're living? He says I'm not practical.

Three years ago he bought a car. Last summer he paid $1100 for a boat. If you think he's right and I'm crazy, please say so and I'll shut up. —THE PERMANENT CAMPER

Dear Camper: Your husband claims if he added two bedrooms to the house he'd be stuck. Please ask him "Stuck with what?" A house that would bring an additional 25 per cent at time of sale?

I agree you need a bigger house. Furthermore, it's shortsighted and selfish of your husband to buy a new car and a boat first. Good luck.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a miserable 14-year-old girl who has two gigantic problems — my mother and my father.

Every girl in our crowd has more freedom than I have. I'm an honor student, don't smoke or drink, have never caused them any worry, and yet they treat me as if I were in the kindergarten.

You have often said in your column that teenagers have to "earn" trust. Well, I have earned it but I don't get it.

The big argument now is about

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Infants Are Spanked Because They Annoy

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

If anyone wants to know why I deplore spanking it is because I get too many letters similar to the following:

Mrs. A. K. writes, "Dear Mrs. Eldred: "What is wrong with these parents? We have just returned from a vacation and while there my son and family spent the week-end with us. They have a girl of 4 and a boy 18-months-old. They put this boy to bed in a strange bedroom with the door closed and lights out and expect him to go to sleep. He climbs out of the crib so they don't bother to put the sides up. He gets spanked the moment he gets out. My son says, 'Close your eyes and I'll be in five minutes and 'you'd better' have your eyes closed.' "Do you think that poor child knows what he means? This went on every afternoon and night they were here."

HAD A TOOTH

"This boy had his first spanking at 7 months and his sister at 4 months. She fussed one night and they paddled her. The next morning she had a tooth! They use a wooden, mixing bowl spoon to paddle."

"A couple of years ago her mother told me, 'We had to go easy on the girl so she wouldn't have black and blue marks when you came.' How can parents be so cruel? And what can be done to keep the boy from climbing out of his bed?"

What makes them cruel is that they are selfish, immature individuals who have no conception of their responsibilities as parents. They have never tried to learn what makes children tick and how to manage them except with gross brutality. This is your son and you have the right to tell him how his conduct appears to an outsider.

To accord parents the privilege to spank can lead to just such fantastic performances when the parents aren't grown up! All they demand is that children never bother them in any way. If they do, then "wham!"

PUT HIM BACK

It's all right to leave down the sides of the crib to prevent a serious fall. But the child should be put back each time he gets out and told that this is bedtime. If he had some of his beloved toys around him, had had a leisurely ritual of going to bed, with a song or story, a prayer and loving handling, he would be in a mood to accept bedtime. It all adds up to a complete lack of understanding of children — the first obligation of any parent.

Mrs. R. S. G.: I send a personal answer only when a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Your boy has shown that he does not deserve the privilege of deciding whether he shall or shall not go to the dentist. He needs this attention and you should see that he has it even if it means going with him to deliver him to the dentist. When he has exhibited enough responsibility to meet his own appointments, then you can step out of the picture, but not before.

If you would like to have our 10-cent booklet "Obedience and Discipline" send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

slumber parties. All my friends can go to slumber parties — but not me. The illogical part of it is, my folks say I can "have" slumber parties at my home, but I can't attend any. Does this make sense?

I'm beginning to feel so cooped up it's making me sick. Please express your views on slumber parties and maybe they will loosen up. They think you are pretty sound. —CAGED TEEN

Dear Caged: The big problem for parents today is to know how to decide on the middle ground between too much and too little freedom, and believe me, it's not easy.

There is no rule of thumb because teenagers vary and some are able to handle more freedom than others. The best way is to ask your parents to let you try on the cloak of responsibility. If it fits, fine. If not — back to the rompers.

A slumber party chaperoned by parents should be within bounds for a 14-year-old. You have "my O.K." I hope you can get theirs.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for "Ann Landers" booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Ike, Family Fly To Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eisenhower, flew here Friday by helicopter for a visit at the President's farm.

The copter took off from Washington at 2:12 p.m. and landed at 2:56 on the lawn at the home of the President's son, Lt. Col. John Eisenhower. The younger Eisenhower's residence is near the farm.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

VOTERS DECIDE TODAY

Long, McSween Predict Victory

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP)—Former Gov. Earl Kemp Long battled Rep. Harold McSween down to the wire Friday night for the Democratic nomination to the House from the 8th Louisiana Congressional District.

Long became 65 Friday, almost twice the age of the 34-year-old Alexandria incumbent who, two years ago, succeeded Long's brother, the late Dr. George Long, in the first primary.

Both candidates expressed the customary confidence of victory Saturday. Observers generally thought it would be a close race. Polls open at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

In another Democratic congressional runoff, Rep. T. A. Thompson of the 7th District was opposed by former State Sen. Arsenene Stewart.

Thompson lacked just a few hundred votes of a clear majority in the first primary.

Long, who ran second in the three-way July 23 first primary, has campaigned on his record as three-time governor. McSween has emphasized his stand against more or higher taxes and against foreign aid.

McSween has the support of former State Rep. Ben Holt, who ran a distant third in the first primary.

"I'm not a braggart," Long said in a birthday interview, "but I think I am going to win. People are churning up over this election."

He appeared rested but said he had been getting only four or five hours of sleep nightly during the runoff campaign.

Long blasted the "Committee to save Louisiana From National Embarrassment" as a tool of McSween's.

The committee, urging voters to reject Long, has reprinted pictures taken of him with a pillow case over his head while on a cross-country trip following his release from mental hospitals last year.

"The committee is a lot of bums and nonworkers," Long exclaimed. "The front man is McSween. Everything in the ads is written by McSween."

The committee chairman, Roy Conn of Pineville, has said he formed the organization as "a matter of principle and not politics."
